REPORT REDS, TURKS TALK ARMS PLANS

Huge Army Massed Along Strategic Dardanelles.

By The Associated Press

BUDAPEST, Hungary, Oct. 21—Reports that Soviet Russian-Turkish military talks had been instituted and that Turkish military preparations was increasing along the strategic Dardanelles—gateway to the Near East—were heard today in the Balkans.

At the same time, Rumania inaugurated a blackout for Bucharest and the nearby oil fields.

Travelers from Turkey said in Athens that railway lines to Adrianople, a Turkish city in territory wedged between the Bulgarian and Greek borders, were jammed with troop trains, while a half a million Turkish troops were said to be already in the region of the Dardanelles.

A rumor that Soviet-Turkish military talks were under way in Adrianople was carried by the Budapest newspaper, Magyar Nemzet, while other unconfirmed reports said the Turks were building new fortifications and communications.

The Turkish press, predicted that the axis would attempt its next push in the Near East, played up British maneuvers to counter such a drive.

Bucharest, the once-gay capital of Rumania, and the rich Ploesti oil fields nearby were blacked out at midnight last night under new regulations.

C. I. O. LEADER URGES U. S. DEFENSE BOARDS

Makes Proposal at Akron Meeting of Public Workers.

By The Associated Press

AKRON, O., Oct. 21—Philip Murray, vice president of the C.I.O. advocates that industrial boards be set up by the government to work out national defense problems.

These should be composed of representatives of industry, labor and the public, and at the top of each authority should be a representative of the government, he urges.

Murray addressed a mass meeting of United Rubber Workers here following the close yesterday of the Ohio Industrial Union Council's convention.

The C.I.O. central body for the state reelected John Owens of Columbus to a third term as president and Ted Silvey of Columbus, secretary-treasurer. It voted to meet in Youngstown next year.

The council indorsed reelection of President Roosevelt, voted to raise a $100,000 fund to fight for revision of the state unemployment compensation act and help unemployed workers press their claims, and adopted a constitutional amendment denying office to "any persons subscribing to the principles of Nazism, Fascism or Communism."

HEAVY FLOODS SWEEP OVER FRENCH AREA

By The Associated Press

VICHY, FRANCE, Oct. 21 — More than 100 persons were reported dead or missing today and officials estimated damage of a billion francs as a result of heavy rains and floods which forced thousands to flee their homes in French Catalonia.

(The franc no longer is quoted but before the German occupation of Paris it ranged from 1.73 cents to 2.26 cents this year.)

Details of the week-end disaster became known in Vichy only today as telephonic communication with Perpigian, capital of the stricken region, was restored. Perpigian itself had been evacuated when the swollen river Tet inundated the lower parts of the city.

Seek Deer with Bows and Arrows

aside for archery enthusiasts several years ago.

Eyre formerly lived in Utah and has spent several weeks on the reserve during the last three years. However, it is the first time Tolle has tried his skill at archery hunting.

Their equipment for the trip more closely resembled the bows and arrows seen in Robin Hood pictures than those generally seen on archery ranges around Marion. They took four bows and a dozen hunting arrows, all hand-made from wood found near Marion. The bows all are five to five and one-half feet in length and two of them were made especially for hunting, having a "pull" of 60 and 70 pounds. The other two are for practice and have pulls of 42 and 48 pounds. The pull in each case is the pounds of force required to pull the bow string from its normal position to the position from which the arrow is released. The arrows are slightly larger than those used for target practice and have large steel points closely resembling an Indian arrow head. The edges of the head are sharpened to razor-edge.

Their equipment also included a tent, a number of blankets and cooking utensils because they plan to camp on the range during their stay.

Few Get Deer

The men's prediction that they won't catch any game—an almost unheard-of forecast on the part of hunters — is apparently well-founded. Eyre pointed out that during the three seasons he has spent on the range, he has never bagged a deer although he has shot a pheasant and two coyotes. Last year there were more than 200 hunters camping on the reserve for the two-week season but only two deer were shot, he said.

It's possible to shoot just as accurately with bows and arrows as with guns, the archers believe, but it's necessary to get a perfect shot with a bow and arrow to kill a deer whereas a bullet will generally cause death if it strikes near a vital spot.

The men expected to arrive at the reserve tomorrow and plan to return in about two weeks.

FIRST REHEARSAL IS SET FOR HANDEL'S "MESSIAH"

Massed Chorus From Marion and Vicinity to Take Part.

The first rehearsal for the presentation of Handel's "Messiah" by a massed chorus of singers from Marion and vicinity during the holiday season will be held Tuesday night at 7:30 at the Community center on South Prospect street.

Earl Ruhlman, as chairman for the holiday event which will be given Dec. 19, has announced the following committee chairmen: Mrs. Clara Campbell, auditorium; Robert Swisher, decorations; W. E. Orcutt, programs; Miss Lois Snodgrass, publicity; E. H. Cowan, finance; Forrest Hill, rehearsals; Miss Audrey Miller, librarian.

Mr. Ruhlman is general chairman and membership chairman, and L. G. Jones, music supervisor in the public schools, will direct the singing. Mrs. Jean Ebert will be the accompanist.

Persons wishing to take part in the presentation are asked to be on hand for the rehearsal Tuesday night.

DR. RUSSELL STARTS NEW DRY TASK AT 85

By The Associated Press

WESTERVILLE, O., Oct. 21—America's foremost temperance crusader is starting his life work anew at 85.

Dr. Howard Hyde Russell, co-founder of the anti-saloon league and its retired president, marked his 85th birthday today by accepting leadership of a five-year campaign to raise $1,500,000 for temperance education by national and state leagues.

Undaunted by repeal of prohibition nearly eight years ago, Dr. Russell came from retirement to direct the drive which he predicted would be successful in restoring temperance to the nation "during my lifetime."

INFANT SON OF MARION COUPLE TAKEN BY DEATH

David Eugene Olson, nine-week-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Olson of 201 Waterloo street, died yesterday at 2 a. m. in City hospital. The baby had been ill seven weeks. He was born in Marion Aug. 17. The father is a native of Jersey City, N. J., and the mother, the former Hulda Millington, was born in Marion county. A brother John survives with the parents. The funeral will be conducted Wednesday at 10 a. m. at the M. H. Gunder & Sons funeral home on West Center street by Major Joseph Heard of the Salvation Army. Friends may call at the funeral home.

BETTER PORK PRICES SEEN NEXT 10 MONTHS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21—Despite recent declines, prices of hogs are expected to average materially higher during the next 10 months than during the past 10 months, the agriculture department said today.

Two factors point to price advances, the department said. They are:

Prospects for a 10 per cent reduction in hog marketings as a result of smaller pig crops this year, and predictions of substantial improvement in consumer demand for meats as a result of the defense spending program.

TRUCK DRIVER ARRESTED TWICE IN THREE DAYS

Again Charged With Driving Overloaded Machine.

For the second time in three days, James O'Hara, 47, of Detroit, Mich., was arrested by Marion state highway patrolmen here on charges of driving an overloaded truck.

The second arrest came Saturday afternoon when patrolmen stopped his truck, loaded with gasoline, five miles east of Marion on Route 98 and hailed him into court on a charge of driving with 12 and one-half tons too much weight over the rear axle. He was released under a cash bond of $105 to appear in municipal court today.

Last Thursday O'Hara was arrested on a similar charge and was released under $25 bond which was declared forfeited when he failed to appear in court the following day. Court officials said the bond was increased to $105 Saturday because the state law provides for a minimum fine of $100 and costs for second offenders.

MISSING OHIO SCHOOL HEAD TAKES OWN LIFE

Pickerington Man Drinks Poison in New Orleans.

By The Associated Press

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 21—Dr. C. Grenes Cole, coroner, said today that a man who registered at a New Orleans hotel under the name of John H. Sieler, Columbus, O., but left an envelope signed "Homer B. Woods," committed suicide last night by drinking poison.

The envelope, the coroner said, bore this message: "Notify Dr. Ray G. Woods, state department of education, Columbus, Ohio. Report me dead. Do not open. Homer B. Woods."

The envelope and two $1 bills were found in the transom of the hotel room by George Walton, operator, who discovered the body this morning.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 21—Homer B. Woods, 50, superintendent of schools at nearby Pickerington, disappeared last Tuesday after police questioned him in connection with the theft of a trumpet from a Columbus pawn shop.

Detective John Phillips said Woods promised to appear at police headquarters on Friday and when he failed to show up police issued a warrant charging him with the trumpet theft.

FORMER MARION EMPLOYE OF EXPRESS CO. DIES

Arthur S. Hippard, 69, retired chief clerk of the Railway Express Agency, Inc., died last night at his home in Cleveland. The Associated Press reported. He worked in Cleveland, Columbus and Marion during his 45 years with the company, the news dispatch stated.

TROOPS PLAN OPEN HOUSE AT ARMORY

Public Invited To Call as Men Prepare for Camp Trip.

Tonight, Tuesday and Wednesday nights visitors will be welcomed at the Armory on West Church street between the hours of 6 and 10, officers announced today as Marion's two units started their last week at the Armory before leaving Thursday for Camp Shelby near Hattiesburg, Miss.

Last drills will be conducted Wednesday morning. In the afternoon the units will begin loading baggage, in preparation for entraining at 3:45 a. m. Thursday.

Five officers, Capt. H. L. Taylor, Lt. Robert Melby and Lt. Robert Self of Co. D, and Lts. Walter Mathiot and Charles Whysall of Headquarters Detachment, 3rd Battalion, went to Columbus at noon today to attend a battalion review and farewell party for Col. Robert Haubrich, 63, who resigned following his failure to pass the physical examination. He has been succeeded by Col. H. C. Doellinger of Marysville.

Yesterday the men attended church. Sixty-nine men and four officers of Co. D marched from the Armory to First Evangelical and Reformed church yesterday morning to attend the worship service. First Lt. Carl Ebert of the company is a member of the church. The men occupied most of the south side of the auditorium.

Men of Headquarters Detachment attended First Presbyterian church, where Lieutenant Mathiot is a member. Several of the men of Co. D went to their own churches, one going to St. Mary Catholic and another to Fite Memorial Baptist.

Among the Headquarters Detachment men who are devoting their time at the Armory to drill on message sending, are three brothers, Corps. Lloyd and James Keeran, and Private, First Class, Virgil Keeran, of Mt. Gilead.

ERIE'S INCOME UP FOR NINE MONTHS OF YEAR

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, Oct. 21—Erie railroads's net operating income in September was $1,419,404, against $1,598,171 in September, 1939. For nine months, the road reported today, net operating income was $9,069,383, an increase of $1,882,799.

PRESIDENT

sociates on the Democratic national committee suggested he make an address in Baltimore.

Apparently, Early continued, they did not know the only available and sizeable auditorium in Baltimore already had been leased by the Republicans for that night. While Mr. Roosevelt had said he might talk in Baltimore, since then, Early said, Flynn and others of the national committee had urged him to follow a tradition begun in 1932 of making campaign addresses at the Brooklyn Academy of Music.

"They are looking into that," the secretary said, "and I think the President will do what they ask him to on that."

Mr. Roosevelt itineraries for train and automobile trips to plan and an address to draft before his appearance Wednesday night in Philadelphia Convention hall.

There, in the auditorium where the Democratic national convention approved his second nomination in 1936, he will deliver the first of five speeches in which he said he would tell the American people about a systematic and deliberate "program of falsification of fact by the opposition."

His address will climax a national Roosevelt youth day during which rallies will be held in 3,740 counties in the United States. The youth organizations will tune in on the President's speech over the NBC red network from 9:15 p. m. to 10 p. m.

Tentative plans call for Mr. Roosevelt to dip into four or five states in which approximately a quarter of the electoral votes are concentrated, either to speak, to inspect additional national defense projects, or both.

The states are Pennsylvania, with 36 electoral votes, New York with 47, Ohio with 26, New Jersey with 16, and possibly Maryland with 8.

At his Hyde Park, N. Y., home over the week-end his guests included Canada's governor general, the Earl of Athlone and his wife and daughter. A cold kept the Earl, uncle of England's King George VI, from riding around the countryside with the Chief Executive and attending services yesterday at St. James Episcopal church.

But the two had plenty of opportunity for conversation of a social nature or about the weighty problems with which the war has confronted their countries.

More royalty came in for a Sunday lunch at Hyde Park house. Grand Duchess Charlotte and Prince Consort Felix of Luxembourg, who fled from their homeland before a German invasion, drove up from Long Island.

SUPREME COURT TO HEAR PRESS CASE ARGUMENTS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21 — The supreme court called for arguments today on the right of a newspaper to comment editorially on court cases prior to a final settlement.

At issue was the conviction of the Los Angeles Times on a charge of contempt of court growing out of the publication of editorials concerning two labor cases and a woman politician.

Other court activities today included the concluding arguments in the case involving the conviction of Harry Bridges, West Coast C.I.O. labor leader, on a charge of contempt of court.

Sleight-of-Hand Tricks Lead to Man's Arrest Here

A few sleight-of-hand tricks last night resulted in the arrest of a transient on a fraud charge filed several weeks ago at Richwood.

Police Capt. E. C. Mackan was eating in a West Side restaurant last night when the man, booked as M. B. Long, alias M. T. Moore, 60, entered the restaurant and began entertaining customers with his tricks for "tips."

The tricks attracted the attention of Capt. Mackan, who recalled that a warrant for a man answering a similar description had been issued by Richwood officials. Long was taken to the police station where he admitted he was the man sought at Richwood, police said.

Officers reported the Richwood charge is in connection with a questionable check for $5 which Long allegedly issued to a Richwood hotel.

Kenton Men Hurt in Accident Near Meeker

Two Kenton motorists, Howard Rhodes, 27, and Lott Edwards, 44, were injured about 3:30 a. m. yesterday when the car in which they were riding struck a mail box and overturned two miles east of Meeker on Route 30-S.

They are confined to Antonio hospital in Kenton where attendants reported their condition is not regarded as serious. They reported that Mr. Rhodes suffered a slight brain concussion and facial laceration and that Mr. Edwards suffered a sprained back and bruises.

Marion state patrolmen who investigated said the car, driven by Mr. Rhodes, apparently got out of control. It struck a mail box standard on the left side of the highway and overturned twice, coming to a stop on its wheels in the center of the highway, the officers reported. Passing motorists took the men to the Kenton hospital.

The patrolmen quoted the men as saying they were enroute from Kenton to Marion when the accident occurred.

Four Minor Mishaps Reported in Marion

Lewis Keefer of 469 Park boulevard escaped uninjured Saturday noon when his automobile figured in a collision with a truck and overturned at West Church street and Blaine avenue.

Police said the truck was driven by John Andrews of 444 East Center street.

Minor damage resulted to a car driven by Ernest Brady of 189 Short street in a collision at North State and George streets yesterday. Brady told officers the driver of the other automobile failed to stop.

A car driven by Reed Osborne of Edison was damaged when it got out of control, leaped over a curb and struck a tree on Mt. Vernon avenue near Church and Vine streets early yesterday, police reported. Osborne told officers he was making a turn from Church street onto Mt. Vernon avenue at the five-point intersection when the steering mechanism broke. No one was hurt.

Minor damage resulted to a car driven by Charles Lytell of 822 Kenton avenue in a collision at Bennett street and Flea avenue last night. Lytell said the driver of the other car did not stop.

Galion Pedestrian Hit by Train

Special to The Star

GALION, Oct. 21—Mrs. Elizabeth J. Moore, 67, of Galion was critically wounded when she was struck by Big Four freight train No. 97 at the South Market street crossing of the Erie and Big Four railroads here Saturday at 1 p. m.

An ambulance was summoned and Mrs. Moore was admitted to Good Samaritan hospital where she was treated for a brain concussion, two fractures of the jaw, severe right temple wounds, and bad bruises and lacerations on the head, right arm bruises and leg bruise. Hospital attaches and her physician said her condition was critical when she was admitted.

According to a police report there was only one witness, a member of the train crew whose name was not immediately learned. It was believed that Mrs. Moore either stepped in front of the train or along the side of it when she was hit. The caboose of another train had just passed over the crossing and it is believed she did not see the approaching train that struck her. It was raining, and she was carrying an armful of groceries and an umbrella, according to the police report.

Mrs. Moore was going south when she approached the crossing, on her way home. She was thrown 18 feet by the impact.

A slow moving train, the engineer brought it to a stop near the Erie depot.

METHODIST WOMEN OF DISTRICT ELECT

Marion Woman Among Those Named at Kenton.

Mrs. Charles R. Aiken of 1133 East Church street was elected secretary of missionary education of the Lima district organization of the Methodist Women's Society of Christian Service at a meeting Friday in Kenton.

More than 500 women from virtually all of the 116 Methodist churches in the Lima district attended. The meeting was called to perfect the district organization of the new Methodist women's organization.

Mrs. A. B. Alberton of Lima was elected president. Others elected are Mrs. William A. Boehnker of LaRue, vice president; Miss Fern Stevens of St. Marys, recording secretary; Mrs. R. K. to theaters of war in which the victory will be driven home."

Presumably, Alexander referred to Egypt and other areas of southeast Europe, including Turkey and perhaps Greece, where an axis drive has been forecast.

The intensified air duel which extended over the week-end from Tromsoe, Norway, to the Persian gulf came as Premier Benito Mussolini inspected his fascist troops near the Yugoslav border.

Turkey was reported in the Balkans to have mobilized a half million troops to guard the strategic Dardanelles from any axis thrust to the Near East.

Rumania had its first stringent blackout precautions last midnight.

The Italian high command yesterday said its warplanes flew 2,800 miles to bomb the important British oil center on Bahrein island in the Persian gulf for the first time. A British communique said only slight damage resulted.

The British admiralty said its seaplanes successfully bombed the German base at Tromsoe.

The Germans claimed week-end gains in their submarine warfare, fixing British ship losses at 43 or a total of 327,000 tons, in two days.

Hongkong reports said Japanese naval planes again attacked the Burma road in China over which supplies are moving to aid Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek's government. A bridge over the Lantsang river was reported destroyed and Chinese motor convoys scattered.

FIRE DAMAGES CROSLEY SHORT WAVE STATION

By The Associated Press

LEBANON, O., Oct. 21—Workmen rushed repairs to a burned antenna tuning house at Mason, southwest of here, so the Crosley Corp could renew beam broadcasts to South America today from its new short-wave radio station, WLWO, one of the most powerful in this country.

James Shouse, vice president of the firm, expressed belief that the blaze which interrupted the 50,000-watt transmission station's program last night was accidental.

The station was dedicated only Oct. 12, and Shouse said the exact extent of damage and cause were difficult to establish because much of the equipment was developed especially for experimentation by WLWO.

MRS. OLIVE LANDON DIES AT SON'S HOME

Death Separates Marion Co. Couple Married 61 Years.

Mrs. Olive Dorothy Eager Landon, 80, who on Nov. 12 would have observed the sixty-second anniversary of her marriage to Lyman Landon, died Sunday at 12:30 p. m. at the home of their son, Lowell Landon of two miles south of Marion on the Delaware road. She had been ill of anemia and complications for the last 11 weeks and had been bedfast since last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Landon had one of the longest marriage records in Marion county.

With the exception of three months in Portsmouth, all of their married life was spent in Grand Prairie and Salt Rock townships, many years in the vicinity of Morral.

Mrs. Landon was born in the county, in Grand Prairie township, on April 7, 1860, daughter of James and Sarah Ann Drake Eager, also natives of the county. She was the last of their family of six children.

She was a member of the Morral Methodist church and was one of Marion county's Gold Star Mothers. A son, Charles L. Landon, was killed in action in the World war, while serving with Co. D of Marion.

Surviving with the husband are five children, Mrs. C. E. Shepherd of 440 Summit street, Mrs. Homer D. Cole of 370 Mary street, Lowell Landon at whose home she died, Fred M. Landon of Sunbury, Pa., and Ola N. Landon of Williamsport, Pa., six grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

The funeral will be conducted Tuesday at 3 p. m. at the L. A. Axe funeral home on Mt. Vernon avenue by Elder L. V. Hite of the Primitive Baptist church at Brush Ridge. Burial will be made in Marion cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home.

MARKET TONE SPOTTY TODAY

Many Leaders Shaken Down for Losses as Trading Develops Roughness.

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Oct. 21 — Stocks jolted over a bumpy market path today and many leaders were shaken down for small amounts.

Continuance of speculative apathy was blamed by brokers partly on fears of new foreign war upsets and lack of definite election clues at home.

The London securities mart maintained its equilibrium. Bonds and commodities were a shade uneven.

Stocks inclined to give ground included U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Crucible, General Motors, Chrysler, U. S. Rubber, American Telephone, Texas Corp., Standard Oil of New Jersey, Sears Roebuck, Eastman Kodak and Consolidated Edison.

In the matter of taxes as a market influence, statistical sources seemingly were beginning to realize that, while 1940 gross for industry as a whole will be well up over 1939, net profits are likely to show a recession from last year.

THINGS MADE EASY FOR ARMY RECRUITS

New Men To Be Toughened Gradually.

By The Associated Press

ALEXANDRIA, La., Oct. 21—America's new army of civilian guardsmen and conscripts will be treated like tenderfeet—even to heated tents with electric lights—until they become as hard as regular enlisted troops.

Officers, preparing to train as many as 100,000 soldiers here in Louisiana's pine forests, made it clear that they would give every JohnDoe coming from an office swivel chair full consideration and all the comforts of home, almost.

For instance:

The first contingent of guardsmen from the 32nd division of Michigan and Wisconsin, arriving by special train at dawn today, found their tents already pitched and a hot breakfast waiting for them.

"They go to camp every year and pitching tents is easy for them," one officer explained. "But we want them to take it easy at first until they get their muscles relaxed and used to outdoor work."

The same was true for the first batch of troops from Ohio's 37th national guard division which reached Camp Shelby, Miss., yesterday, except that they were served hot breakfast on the train.

The 20th engineers from Fort Benning, Ga., in four weeks have thrown up temporary soldiers' quarters here fit for any city chap until he becomes a hard-muscled part of the national defense.

There will be six guardsmen to a tent, pitched on a clean new pine board flooring. Each will have a stove, placed in a wooden box filled with earth. Each tent will be equipped with electric lights. Each soldier will have a comfortable cotton mattress and three warm blankets.

Carving cities out of the wilderness for 100,000 men is no little job but the army insists upon good roads, plenty of fresh water, adequate sewage disposal system, electric power, hot and cold running showers and plenty of facilities for cooking.

Intended to be placed on a shelf in the top of a closet, a device has been invented that draws liquid through a wick to a cone shaped top, where the liquid vaporizes and disperses in the air.

VETERAN, 125, AT CONVENTION

2 Marion Stores Are Victims of Refund Racket

Two Marion department stores were victims of a new kind of a racket Saturday morning and a stranger, described as about 45 years old and a "smooth talker" was nearly $10 ahead, police reported.

Police said the stranger went to one store and complained that a doll he had purchased there last Christmas and sent to a sister in California had been broken in shipment and demanded that the $5 be paid for the article he returned. He said he did not know the gift had been damaged until he visited his sister recently. Clerks and the store manager listened to the man's story and following the tradition that "the customer is always right," they refunded the "purchase" price.

A short time later the same ruse was used at another store, except that the man said he had sent the doll to a sister at Tulsa, Okla. He was "refunded" $4.95.

The "racket" probably would not have come to light, officials of the stores said today, if it had not been that a man and his wife are employed at the two stores, the husband as manager of the toy department at one and the wife as a clerk at the other. At lunch Saturday the husband and wife discovered that both stores had received similar complaints from the same man, and told their employers who in turn notified police.

TWO FUGITIVES HELD IN COLUMBUS CHASE

Pair Caught After Escape from Industrial School.

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 21—Two fugitives from the boys industrial school at Lancaster tried to run down a city patrolman early today and were captured later after one was wounded by police gunfire. His companion was burned on a power line.

The pair, who escaped from the reformatory early Sunday, gave the names of John Holloway, 17, of Cleveland and John Robinson, 15, of Akron. Both are Negroes. Holloway, shot in the shoulder, is under police guard at University hospital. Robinson was treated there for burns and taken to the juvenile detention home.

Patrolman Al Whitman reported he saw the youths attempting to molest a girl on a West Side street. When he started toward them they tried to run him down with an auto. He leaped to safety and sounded an alarm.

Sheriff's Deputies Ed Carroll and Charles Stimpfle spotted the speeding car on the city's northwest outskirts and gave chase. The machine hit a utility pole and when the fleeing fugitives ignored commands to halt Carroll fired three shots, one hitting Holloway.

Robinson barely escaped electrocution as he became entangled in power lines while trying to hide near a factory.

Boston Wool

By The Associated Press

BOSTON, Oct. 21—Business was slow in the Boston wool market today, but there had been a good demand for fine and half blood territory wools up to the close of last week. Graded French combing length, fine territory wools, were bringing mostly $1.02-1.07, scoured basis, while original bag lines were bringing mostly $1-1.05, scoured basis. Medium grade, territory wools were quiet with quotations on combing wools ranging up to 80 cents, scoured basis, for three-eighths blood, and 85 cents for quarter blood. Mixed three eighths and quarter blood, bright fleeces were sold recently at 45-46 cents, in the grease, but demands were slow on lots held at 47 cents above.

WHEAT PRICES SHOW LITTLE CHANGE TODAY

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, Oct. 21—In the absence of any new trade developments over the week-end, wheat prices today moved listlessly through a narrow range.

There was some hedging from the northwest as well as scattered profit taking, which caused prices to dip about ⅜ cent at times, but this was offset by short covering attributed to an elevator interest and possibly some mill buying. Reports indicated prices were not high enough to stimulate increased country sales or withdrawal of loan stocks although the amount of grain going into storage under loans has diminished. Some No. 2 red wheat sold at 92½, or 11½ cents over the basic loan rate here.

Wheat closed unchanged to ⅝ higher compared with Saturday, Dec. 83⅝-¾, May 84¾-⅞; corn ⅛ off to ⅛ up, Dec. 60 ⅝-½, May 61½; oats ⅛ higher.

2,283 ANIMALS MARKETED IN SALE AT BUCYRUS

The Marion Star

The Stars Say—

For Tuesday, Oct. 22

THE AUGURIES for this day make for a lively and probably turbulent state of affairs, with the forecast of moderate success through the exercise of good judgment, executive ability, hard work and the support of those in fair financial standing. This effort of giving stability and expansion to the fortunes and putting ambitions on a second road to attainment should not be put in jeopardy by "flying off the handle" or other exhibitions of excess impetuosity or over drastic activities. Handle all writings with caution.

Those whose birthday it is should have their fortunes, ambitions and peace of mind in their own hands during the year, which may hold promise of increase, expansion, stability and fulfilled aspirations if such happy auspices are not imperiled by rash, impulsive, tempestuous and headlong behavior. Over-indulgence or violence of any nature may offset or undermine the efforts of elders, friends and those in prestige and financial power to assist in growth, advancement and security in possession, power and standing. Be cautious in handling all manner of writings.

A child born on this day should have many staple and sterling traits of character, with energy, initiative and power, which, however, may be nullified by impetuosity, indulgence or over-zealous enthusiasms or reckless activities.

THREE-PIECE SCHOOL ENSEMBLE

PATTERN 4602

Is your school-going daughter the leggy, coltish type? Or does she still have the chubbiness of a little girl? This well-tailored Anne Adams style, Pattern 4602, is designed to become any young miss, whatever type she may be. The trim-fitting jacket-blouse either buttons in double-breasted effect or jauntily zips down the front, and may have short sleeves. You might have the collar contrasting, and pockets make a smart extra touch. Let the flaring, four-section skirt be anchored firmly in place by a suspender top. Then finish off the whole outfit with a part cap that matches the skirt, the top, or is "on its own".

Pattern 4602 is available in girls' sizes 8, 10, 12, 14 and 16. Size 12 2-piece frock and cap, takes 2⅞ yards 54 inch fabric blouse and cap, 1½ yards 54 inch fabric and skirt, 1¾ yards contrast.

Send fifteen cents (15c) in coins for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly size, name, address, and style number.

THREE NEW CHAMPS WIN IN WYANDOT CO.

Rain Hampers Huskers in County Contest.

Special to The Star

UPPER SANDUSKY, Oct. 21—Three new husking champions were crowned at the annual corn husking contest here Saturday, but with rain falling intermittently no records were broken. The new champions are Lewis Pfeifer of Salem township, shock champion; Joe Elliott of Upper Sandusky, standing and Harold Wagner of Sycamore, junior.

Pfeifer turned out a total of 1,151 pounds in the shock contest but the deductions cost him 97 pounds, leaving him a net of 1,102 pounds of 15.74 bushels. He bested his nearest rival by more than a bushel, Clarence Lucas of near Upper Sandusky, turning out a total of 1,054 for a net of 1,014.5 or 14.49 bushels. Harold Gottfried, Salem township, the only other competitor, placed third with 14.23 bushels. The contest went 80 minutes.

Elliott took first honors with a total of 1,740 pounds but lost 295 pounds on deductions leaving his net of 1,445 or 20.64 bushels. He nosed the second man, Leonard Gottfried, Salem township, by less than a bushel. Gottfried turned out 1,520 pounds total for a net of 1,382 or 19.74 bushels. Wallace Fassel, 1939 shock contest, placed third in the standing event with a net of 17.35 bushels. Vernon Parsell of Marseilles, was fourth with 15.16 bushels.

Three were entered in the forty-five minute junior event, Wagner taking top honors with a grand total of 752 and a net of 625 or 8.93 bushels, defeating Wayne Arnold of Marseilles who turned out a total of 678.5 pounds for a net of 617.75 or 8.82 bushels. Frank Reinhart of Carey, placed third with 7.99 bushels. Prizes in all three contests will be presented in a ceremony at the Elks lodge, sponsors of the contest, Tuesday evening.

Capital Library Gets Rare Copy of National Anthem

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON—The library of congress announced today that it had just acquired a real patriotic rarity—a copy of the first published version of America's national anthem—"The Star-Spangled Banner."

The small broadside, or handbill, 8 by 6½ inches and containing the full text of the song together with a short account of how it came to be written, is one of only two known to exist.

The library obtained it from Jesse L. Cassard of Baltimore who found it in an old scrapbook in his attic. The only other known copy is in the Walters Art gallery in Baltimore.

The first printing of Francis Scott Key's famous poem happened to be a broadside because at the time of its production in 1814 all newspapers in Baltimore had suspended publication while every able-bodied man in the city shouldered a gun against the British.

The library of congress now has virtually a complete collection of early editions of "The Star-Spangled Banner," including the first printing with music, engraved by Thomas Carr of Baltimore. About the only thing it lacks is the first full manuscript draft, of which the Walter Art gallery is the proud possessor.

AREA CHURCH MEET HELD AT GALION

100 From Marion at Church of Christ Conference.

About 100 members of Churches of Christ in Marion, Crawford and Morrow counties attended the fall meeting of the Tri-County association yesterday at the Galion Church of Christ.

Rev. H. E. Allegood of Marion, president of the association, was in charge of the sessions. The spring meeting will be held at Bucyrus.

Vernal Likins of the Pleasant Grove church was in charge of the song service in the afternoon and Harold Patrick of Marion led the singing at night.

A panel discussion of "The Church and the Community," was a feature of the afternoon program and at night John H. Bain of Marion Epworth Methodist church gave an address on "God's Providence."

A quartet composed of George Rule, Richard Patterson, Rev. Sterling Wees of Galion, and Fred Wilson, accompanied by Mrs. Patterson, sang in the afternoon. At night there was a quartet selection by Dr. C. L. Baker, Miss Barbara Brooks, Mrs. Ella Brooks and Vernal Likins of Kirkpatrick, with Mrs. Harold Mollencoop of Bucyrus as accompanist.

An automatic storage water heater has been invented that is small enough to be installed under a kitchen sink.

Expect Draft Serial Numbers To Be Listed Here Tomorrow

Boards Completing Record for Posting; Numerals To Be Used in Lottery Scheduled Nov. 18.

Marion country's draft registrants probably will know their serial numbers by tomorrow, officials of the three draft boards in the county announced today.

All three boards are expected to post complete lists of the registered men, together with their numbers, either late today or early tomorrow. Board 1 (Wards 1, 2 and 3) and Board 3 (rural area) will have their lists on bulletin boards in the lobby of the post office. Board 2 (Wards 4, 5 and 6) will post its list in the first floor lobby of the Marion building at 198 South Main street, first door north of the Marion-Reserve Power Co. office.

The serial numbers are the numbers which will be used in the draft lottery at Washington. If you have serial number 1, it does not mean that you will be first in line for the draft. It is merely your number for the drawing.

All in Capsules

In the Washington lottery, the numbers will be in little glass capsules, so that no one can distinquish among them. There will be enough numbers to cover the largest draft district in the country. Thus if the largest district has 3,500 names of young men, there will be 3,500 serial numbers drawn in the lottery.

The first number drawn in the lottery will be given Order No. 1. The second drawn will be Order No. 2 and so on until all the numbers have been drawn.

The order numbers are the ones which determine who is first in line for military service, and who is last. However, they are not final.

Even if you have Order No. 1, you may be deferred for some reason.

Two Numbers

Every man registered will have both a serial number and an order number.

The serial numbers will be posted by tomorrow, but the order number will not be known until after the draft lottery. At this time the order number also will be posted by each draft board.

After order numbers have been assigned, each draft board will receive a call to furnish so many men for military service. The boards will start down their lists of order numbers, taking No. 1, No. 2, No. 3 etc. They will classify these men on the basis of answers to comprehensive questionnaires which will be mailed out in the near future. There are four major classes: Class I, available for service; Class II, deferred because of occupational status; Class III, deferred because of dependents; Class IV, deferred specifically by law or because unfit for military service. The first draft call is expected about Nov. 18.

Volunteer Provision

I any young man does not desire to await his turn in the draft, but wants to enter the service right away, the law contains a provision whereby this can be done. Such young men should appear before their local draft board and volunteer for training. His registration card is given a serial number just as any other registrant, but instead of an order number his card contains the letter V. Such a volunteer will be among the first group to go into training provided he falls in Class I and passes necessary physical and mental tests.

All the Marion county boards have received telegraph instructions from Adjutant General Ellison D. Light, head of the state selective service board, not to class late registrants as delinquents, but register them. Thus far boards 2 and 3 have had no registrations since registration day last Wednesday. Board 1 has had two, one at the hospital and one at the office. The latter was a deaf-mute, whose registration was accomplished through written instructions.

As the lists of registrants neared completion, it appeared that Marion county's manpower is shrinking.

The total number, listed at 5,089 on registration day, now stands at only 4,764. However, there are cards to come in yet from Marion county men who registered out of the county and state.

Board No. 1 has 2,179; Board No. 2 has 1,231 and Board No. 3 has 1,354.

ITALY ACTS TO STIR TROUBLE IN INDIA

Planes Fly 2,800 Miles To Bomb Oil Fields.

By The Associated Press

ROME, Oct. 21—Stefani, official Italian news agency, said today a far-reaching political motive behind Saturday's Italian bombing of Bahrein island in the Persian gulf was the hope it would increase anti-British feeling in India.

"The Italian air force reached clear to the gateway of English India," Stefani said, "where the population's ferment against the dominating nation is increasing daily. The air action against Bahrein will have world repercussions."

Yesterday's communique of the Italian high command said Italian planes flew 2,800 miles to bomb the British oil center in the gulf of Persia, setting "enormous fires" with hits on pipe lines, refineries and tanks.

The Bahrein Petroleum company, which conducts operations of the island is described as a British firm registered in Canada, which is partly owned by Standard Oil company of California and the Texas Corporation.

The Man Who Has Been to Bali

FOREIGN affairs to most Americans is something like the island of Bali—a mystery so intriguing that the few who visit the scene must be looked up to forever afterward.

This bit of folklore has been turned to advantage by the third termers. It has caused President Roosevelt to claim he is indispensable; he is, the argument goes, the only man who has been to Bali and therefore he must know more about it than anyone else.

It is a political fact of prime importance that Mr. Roosevelt and his most zealous friends cannot claim or dare to claim that the New Deal should be continued in power ad infinitum because of its successes in the field of domestic policy. If war had not diverted popular attention from the New Deal's record at home, the third term campaign would have died a-borning.

Thus has come about the remarkable situation of an administration which has brought the country to the brink of war claiming it has special qualifications for handling foreign affairs. There even has been an attempt to make it appear that the people should give Mr. Roosevelt a third term because that would make a dictator mad—that Mr. Roosevelt is running against Adolf Hitler and Benito Mussolini.

Wendell L. Willkie finally has got around to talking about this absurdity. So have some of the other spokesmen for the opposition. The gist of their rebuttal is that the New Deal's record in foreign affairs and its qualifications for handling them aren't one whit better than its domestic record and its qualifications for energizing the nation's productive capacity.

There is a close relationship between the New Deal's shortcomings at home and abroad, as Mr. Willkie sees it, and he reminded an audience in St. Louis Thursday night that Winston Churchill saw it the same way as long ago as 1937. The function of the United States in maintenance of democratic security where totalitarianism threatens it directly is and has been production. It has not performed that function under the New Deal, nor can it ever perform it properly under an administration dedicated to the proposition until a few months ago that American production needs to be curtailed.

Mr. Willkie denies categorically there has been any brilliance in the New Deal's foreign policy. He puts his finger on a fact so obvious it has been crying for campaign attention: That the war abroad has enabled third termers to fall back on the talking point that the United States must string along with Mr. Roosevelt because he is in touch with those strange and mystifying people across the ocean.

25 Years of Lethal Progress

REPORTS of a total death toll of 8,500 civilian lives from German air raids on Great Britain, with 13,000 civilians wounded, mark 25 years of lethal progress. Whereas in the month of September alone, 6,054 British civilians were killed by Nazi bombs, in the World war only 1,316 British civilians were killed during all the air raids from 1914 to 1918. The Germans were by no means reticent about engaging in air raids against Britain in the other war, but lacked the destructive power which is supplied by modern bombers and bombs. They can kill five times as many civilians now in a month as they could kill in five years a quarter of a century ago. The properly damage they can do is proportionately even greater, no doubt.

It was to test such things that the axis powers waged war in Spain and wantonly destroyed lives and habitations in Ethiopia and Poland. The experts apparently were satisfied with the results; they were confident civilians would wilther promptly. They had everything figured out to a T except the stubborn resistance of human beings in the face of persecution. Germany has not chosen to reveal how many persons have been killed by Britain's retaliatory bombs either, which is something else the experts probably failed to calculate in advance.

Frightfulness may hang itself on its own rope before the war ends.

News Behind the News

Overhauling of Defense Setup Scheduled To Take Place After Election.

By PAUL MALLON

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21—Thorough overhauling of the whole defense setup is awaiting the outcome of the election. The administration has quietly decided to do it if Mr. Roosevelt wins.

Greatly enlarged powers will be granted the defense commission by the President. A shakedown in personnel is being planned. An overall coordinator will probably be named, instead of a chairman (Mr. Roosevelt does not like the chairman idea since Willkie mentioned it first.) The baton job is slated to go to Don Nelson, now functioning in that capacity without power, rather than to Leon Henderson or William S Knudsen, as has been frequently suggested. At least one industrialist has a foot out the door. John D. Biggers, president of Libby, Owens, Ford Glass Co., has been suffering unpleasantly from pressure of the New Dealers

Paul Mallon

But more important than these contemplated readjustments is the related plan to have the President issue an executive order empowering the commission to lay a heavy hand on manufacturers. Authority to enforce priorities of government contracts would be granted. Skilled labor could be requisitioned from one industry to another.

Dissatisfaction with the way defense is going is far greater on the inside than the public realizes, worse than Mr. Willkie has charged. A swarm of bugs has developed in the initial operation. The administration is trying to sit on them until the campaign is over.

Campaign Break

The current break of the polls from the Roosevelt trend was first forecast exclusively in this column, dated Oct. 4. Republicans now have been further heartened by heavy registrations throughout the country. They attribute this to Willkie clubs getting out the white collar vote that formerly confined its electoral activities to vocal comment. Some business clubs also have helped by levying a fine of $5 upon every member who fails to register.

When Mr. Roosevelt accumulated the unprecedented total of 27,000,000 votes in 1936, his poll actually represented the approval of only about one-fifth of the population of the United States (including children). No figures on adult voting population are available but it is clear that Mr. Roosevelt's "popular mandate" was rendered by far less than a majority of eligible citizens.

Reports from England

The United States army is slipping war observers over to England constantly by commercial airline for a few weeks survey. From an air corps officer recently back from such an air observation trip, congressmen have privately learned:

Great numbers of American planes are being fought daily against the Germans but you never hear of them because the British paint them and make a few changes to disguise their identify. They are never identified in communques.

German plane losses since the war began (including Poland) number 7,000 to 8,000. Hitler is pinched for experienced first-class pilots. English anti-aircraft has been effective but is not available in sufficient numbers.

British morale is amazing. Observers who hurried to spots where bombs hit in London generally found spectators including children commenting not on the damage done by the bomb as much as the possibility that the British plane got the German assailant.

Fuel Deficiency

Most dangerous of our defense deficiencies is in high octane gasoline for aviation. Defense commission has found 100 days would be required to step up production to a necessary wartime rate, and has recommended storing 100 days supply for emergency. Complications arose as to where the war and navy departments would get the money. The great lender, Jesse Jones, finally agreed to make funds available. But nothing has been done despite the alarm expressed about the situation by everyone from the top of the White House on down.

Slip

The generally tight-lipped Mr. Jones incidentally relaxed too much on octane gasoline. National defense commission was careful not to let anyone know how much 100 days supply at wartime rate would be. Not knowing this was a military secret, Jones in a press conference freely confessed the amount of money he would make available for so many million gallons, giving the exact figure.

All the Zapps had to do was to take that figure and divide by 100 to calcuate the extent of our planned wartime activity for the first 100 days.

Ski Troops for U. S.?

Army's Looking Into It, and Congressman Has Plan.

By JACK STINNETT

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21—If a group of men here have their way—and they may—the United States is going to have some ski troops.

Rep. Lawrence Lewis, Denver Democrat, has turned over to Gen. George C. Marshall, the army's chief of staff, an elaborate prospectus for a 6,000-acre training camp under the brow of the continental divide, 50 miles west of Denver. At last report, the army staff had the proposal under serious consideration.

Jack Stinnett

What a case Rep. Lewis and his associates have made out for their project! They start with the premise that "if the United States is to have complete military defense preparedness, it must provide for every conceivable eventuality. . . ." Then the congressman asks just what would happen if American troops should some day find themselves defending the nation in the rugged mountains of Alaska or British Columbia.

Points To Finns

He points out that men often are incapacitated at 6,000 feet if unaccustomed to it and that men from low altitudes frequently collapse at 10,000 to 14,000 feet. Horses and mules from the lowlands can't take it either and even machines as mechanically perfect as the automobile need readjustments to buck the rarefied air and stinging cold.

Look how the Finns skied circles around the lumbering Russians and the Austrian Jagers skimmed over the crags of Norway to harass plodding British, says Mr. Lewis.

The Russians even ordered their troops to take up skiing, which was a laugh, the prospectus points out, because everybody knows that it takes three years of intensive training to make a good skier out of the average sod-bound citizen and that isn't taking into consideration any time for his having to learn soldiering.

Near Moffat Tunnel

Here is what Lewis and his coworkers suggest: A 6,000-acre training ground at an altitude of from 10,000 to 13,000 feet in the bowl stretching up to the divide near Jones pass, below which the Moffat road ducks under the great ridge for its long dark journey to the western slope.

Twenty miles away at Fraser is a landing field where the air force could base for cooperative training with the snow troops. To the south is the Gore range and to the north the Arapaho. These would provide opportunity for mountain operations both in winter and summer.

Dog Teams

The first ski troops comprise 500 officers and enlisted men. Training would start from proposed barracks with the men taking elementary spills on a half-mile run that drops 600 to 700 feet. They would go back to the top by a Swiss type tramway for another try.

There would be outdoor snow maneuvers of all kinds, including junkets to far places with dog teams. Also included would be training in the art of scaling icy peaks and education in the mountain and winter aspects of engineering, communications and supply.

The fact that the army staff has taken it under consideration does not mean that it is a certainty. Over at army headquarters, they are noncommittal, just say it is being studied. But Lewis and the Coloradoans who helped him outline and present the plan are hopeful.

If you would ask me, the ski manufacturers and a lot of soldiers who know the difference between a slalom and a smorgasbord are hopeful too.

Watch the Curves

CHICAGO—One out of eight has it—the inability or lack of common sense to drive an automobile around a curve, or even down a straightaway on the open road, without sooner or later plunging off the road to his death.

Accident Facts, the National Safety Council statistical yearbook, reports that of the motor vehicle accident deaths which occur in rural areas, one out of eight happens when the vehicle leaves the roadway on a curve. Another one in eight occurs when the vehicle leaves the road on a straight stretch.

Usually the driver loses control because he has been drinking, is sleep, fatigued, distracted by scenery or has tried to pass another car Occasionally he is forced off the road by another driver who is at fault in one or another of these same respects.

DICTATORS, TAKE NOTICE

Primer of the Balkans

Facts About the Nations in Europe's Hot Corner.

"A" Is For Albania

Albania is the size of Vermont but twice as hilly and twice as populous.

Most Albanians are farmers and herdsmen. Most are Moslems because Turkey ruled them for centuries.

They are one of Europe's oldest races. They live primitive lives, follow old customs including the blood feud.

Albania became independent in 1920. Its king was mountain chieftain Zog, who married a part-American girl.

Zog cooperated with the Italians, took their money, let them start to develop the country.

Last year Italy tired of this game, moved in on Albania, sent Zog packing.

"B" Is For Bulgaria

Bulgaria is at the crossroads just above the Dardanelles—the water lane from the Black to the Mediterranean sea. That might be a place of power—if one were strong.

A thousand year ago Bulgaria was strong. It even terrorized mighty Constantinople. Then it became a Turkish province. For centuries its people were very poor. They are still poor, still mostly peasants. Only 60 years ago they revolted and set up the modern nation. Russia helped them and the Bulgars have a kindred feeling for the Russians.

Despite this feeling Bulgaria sided with Germany in the World war and lost territory. Now she has regained some of it from Rumania. That makes her larger than Kentucky, gives her twice as many people.

Today Bulgaria is still at the crossroads. But she is not strong and she wonders if the crossroads will become a battleground.

"H" Is For Hungary

The typical Hungarian is a farmer. He tills fields and raises stock as a peasant on a large estate in the flat Hungarian plain. He leaves business to those in the cities who like it. He takes pride that his forefatehrs fought the terrible Turk to a standstill.

Under Austria, the Hungarians proved so turbulent that they were set up as a separate kingdom tied to Austria only through allegiance to the Hapsburgs. This tie was snapped in the World war. But the peace that made Hungary independent clipped off her borders, leaving her without natural defenses. Hungary became a nation without a king and with a single passion—to become great and strong once more. To have a chance at this she has had to go along with strong Germany.

Recently Hungary got back territory from Rumania, as well as from Czecho-Slovakia, making her about the size of Oklahoma. She wants more.

"R" Is for Rumania

The Rumanians speak a language akin to Latin. Their land is rich in oil and in surplus grain.

Rumania got a lot out of the World war. She became the largest Balkan nation—as big as Arizona. She had more people than New York and Ohio together and great wealth in oil and wheat.

Her neighbors were all very jealous. Rumania kept a big army and made many treaties to guard her wealth.

But she relied too heavily on French and British support. When that collapsed, Russia took a piece of her land, then Hungary and Bulgaria.

Now Germany has moved troops into Rumania, because Germany doesn't want someone else to get Rumania's oil.

"T" Is for Turkey

Turkey used to be the bad man of Europe. She ruled all the Balkans and threatened proud Vienna. Then she became the sick man of Europe. Province after province revolted.

By World war time she had become a part of the Kaiser's Berlin-to-Baghdad plans for Eastern expansion and she threw in her lot with Germany. Her stout peasantry fought bravely as usual, but Turkey lost.

Out of that war came Ataturk, who made modern Turkey. He was the first of the modern dictators. He modernized the country, made its army and its works respected. He transferred the capital from ancient Istanbul on the Dardanelles to inland Ankara. Kemal is dead now, but the friendship he established with Britain, the army he developed and the capital he protected from the storms that rage around the Dardanelles are decisive factors in the present situation.

"Y" Is For Yugoslavia

It was in Serbia that the World war started. Before it ended Serbia took a terrible beating, even thought she made a magnificient fight. Peace transformed her into modern Yugoslavia with 14,000,000 people and lands as extensive as Oregon's. But Yugoslavia wants no part in this war.

Her people are largely Slavic and so she has ties with Russia. Also she once had ties with Rumania. Czecho-Slovakia and France. Now she is pretty well surrounded by lands under German and Italian control.

Yugoslavia occupies some of the highest hills in the Balkans. Back in her hills lie rich mines and forests. Her hardy peasants are dour fighters. But they would rather be left alone.

Busy Lodgemen

By The Associated Press

ALAMOSA, Colo. — Assistant Fire Chief William Shuldt, who also is exalted ruler of the Alamosa B. P. O. E., was presiding at a lodge initiation ceremony. Other members of the volunteer fire department were participating, every one in full dress.

A car, parked at the curb in front of the building, caught fire. The volunteer responded on the run, manned a hose, put out the flames, brushed off their fancy uniforms and returned to the initiation.

The Pleasant Township Farm Women's club was entertained at the home of Mrs. C. F. Klinefelter.

Mrs. John A. Wolford and Mrs. Harvey T. Gracely greeted 250 guests in a reception at their home on East Church street.

Senator Harding wound up a speaking campaign in New York state with four speeches during the day to audiences in Rochester and another at night before a huge crowd in Buffalo. Republican party leaders predicted the Harding-Coolidge ticket would carry the state by a plurality of 500,000.

The War a Year Ago

OCT. 21, 1939
By The United Press

Four German planes fell in the first attack on a British convoy in the North Sea.

The German Navy as ordered by Adolph Hitler to intensify attack "in all oceans" on all merchant ships in convoys carrying contraband to Great Britand France.

Western Front communiques indicated little fighting.

Three ships, the Gustaf Adolf, Swedish liner, the Norwegian tanker Deodata, and the Rumanian Oltenia were sunk. Crews of each were rescued.

Bronx Busters

It's a Daffy Country—Latest Is New Yorkers Appearing in Wild West Show.

By DAMON RUNYON

THERE is an ad in the Madison Square den rodeo program of a real cattle at Montauk Point on Long Island where are received. Also several proclamations of ranches in the Adirondacks and Poconos folks from Manhattan Island, Brooklyn Jackson Heights sit in the big hall on 8th a and freely criticise the roping and riding nique of the lads from Montana, Texas, Wyoming and New Mexico.

Damon Ru

As if this were not enough to make an old cowhand from the Arkansaw valley of Colorado wonder what the heck the world is coming to, they had a bronco buster from the Bronx up on a heaving hide the other night. It was in a contest involving the pareback riding of some distinctly daffy steeds. We thought Al Frazin, the young announcer, was trying to kid somebody when he mentioned the address of this particular conte a Mr. Al Naplotani.

A broncho buster from the Bronx stru as about as unlikely as a begel bender Butte. We watched Mr. Al Naplotani sco skeptically as he dug himself out of the d the garden arena and went limping dizz the side lines after a brief session with a legged fever called Billy the Kid.

Yet we suppose if we had been asked i vance to consider the improbable situatio broncho buster from the Bronx and to p the length of his tenure aboard a horse h we could not have fixed a much shorter than Mr. Naplotani held forth. He nev the saddle warm.

ABOUT this time along came Ted L debonnair publicity man for the rod affirm the accuracy of Frazin's stateme to Naplotani's place of residence. He sai plotani is 24 years old and lives at Park a and 178th street. His father runs an auto wrecking shop and garage. The son to rodeo-riding, in 1936 when a pal bet him $1 did not dare enter the Garden competition

Before that, Naplotani had been a p riding mostly at half mile tracks and grounds. When he was 12 years old he w at the Bronx Zoo one summer, helping girls into the saddles on the ponies ther then leading the small steeds around the Another boy the same age on the sam was Silvio Coucci. When business was Naplotani and Coucci would ride the themselves.

Later, they became stable boys aroun race tracks, and presently jockeys. Coucc for years a noted rider. Naplotani qui turf with much less fame about six year and went back to work with his fathe got quite a tossing around when he to his pal's dare in '36, the Bronks disch him also as soon as they left the chute he stuck throughout the show.

ONE night he was thrown and kicked head. He did not win a penny in money. The New York show is a sort of series of the cowboys and a considerable is distributed among the champions in the ous events. Naplotani did not enter in 19 '39 but came back this year for another t says he likes the game. The one heavo saw him get would have sent us home Bronx on the gallop.

The presence of a native Bronxonian rodeo competition just about completes the ernization of this formerly strictly wild w stuff. We can remember when the rodeo came to New York a few years ago an mid-towners followed the big hats and heels through the streets in popeyed w Now the punchers attract little attentio fact, they are sometimes confused with Jack Kriendler, of "21," who dresses the way and has finer saddles. The show has b a standard attraction, like the circus of th day bike race.

IT HAS one new feature this year in Autry, a nice looking, affable young who has great fame in western movie on the radio. He puts on a fine act in the with a pair of beautifully schooled horse sings, to boot. Autry is not as well kno New York as he is elsewhere, but he pro knocks out a snappy quarter of a m per year just the same. That is surely h his horses.

Blind Man Cheated Only Once

By The Associated Press

CORINTH, Miss.—For ten years blind J Armster Odle has been running a lucrativ ing station business—filling gas tanks, cha oil and handling accounts. He has been c but once.

His "system" is built on trust:

"While I handle dozens of bills a day, n has ever told me he was giving me a fiv when actually handing me a dollar bill. S as I know, no one has ever given me the amount of change deliberately. I have fa them—and they keep faith with me."

Graduate of two schools for the blind, bought his station from two men who co make it succeed.

"They told me business had left here recalled, "but I've made a comfortable and enough besides to pay $5,000 in cash to a new station."

During the last two years Odle has ha helpers but still waits on many customers self. Only once has one driven away w paying.

TRADERS VIEW STORED WHEAT

Speculate on Price at Which Loan Grain Will Head for Market.

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, Oct. 21—Object of much speculation in grain trade circles today is government loans [illegible] "seal" and start marketing.

Also subject of much thought is how large the flow might be when it gets started. These twin subjects have been back of much of the teetering in prices and also indicate the wariness with which grain traders here have regarded the taking of a set position on the market.

Estimates vary as to the price needed for this stored wheat to break over the dam of loan security and flow into the channels of trade.

Statisticians in the board of trade pits have figured that, with all charges computed, loan wheat will have to bring 87 cents a bushel before there is a possibility of it coming to market.

Prices have advanced, more or less steadily, since mid-August. The advance, which this week hit the season's highest levels, has reached 16 cents a bushel, with between 2 and 3 cents of it reached in the last week. The December delivery, which represents wheat grown this year and therefore subject to considerable influence from the cash market where most of this suddenly freed wheat would appear, has hovered around 85 and 86 cents a bushel.

An almost complete embargo on shipment of wheat from three Canadian provinces, Saskatchewan, Alberta, and Manitoba, was announced during the week by Canadian railroad. Storage space, estimated at a theoretical maximum of 425,000,000 bushels, was almost exhausted with 403,000,000 bushels of all kinds of grain in store.

BACK FROM CONVENTION

GREEN CAMP — Rev. Charles W. Harmon, pastor of the Baptist church has returned from attending sessions of the Ohio Baptist convention in Akron. Rev. Harmon went to Akron with Rev. and Mrs. M. C. Harlow, pastor of the Baptist church in Morral and Mrs. Emma Myers of Morral.

MRS. THOMAS INSTALLED HEAD OF UNION AUXILIARY

Mrs. Virginia Sorreles Becomes Secretary for Sixth Year.

Mrs. Virginia Sorreles was installed as secretary-treasurer for the sixth consecutive term at a meeting of Woman's Auxiliary No. 179 Typographical Union No. 675 Friday night at the home of Mrs. Etheleen Scott on South Prospect street.

Mrs. Irene Thomas was installed as president; Mrs. Pearl Irey, chaplain; and Mrs. Bess Streib, executive member. Mrs. Irey presided as the installing officer.

Mrs. Sorreles, who also is secretary-treasurer of the state auxiliary, and Mrs. Agnes Truka gave reports of the state meeting at Dayton.

Entertainment arranged by Mrs. Truka and Mrs. Helyn Hurley included contests, awards going to Mrs. Bernice Custer and Mrs. Sorreles. The fund box was won by Mrs. Hurley. Appointments for refreshments were in keeping with Halloween.

At a meeting Nov. 8 the members will vote on proposals and changes in the International law submitted at the International convention held recently in New Orleans.

PEARL ST. P.T.-A. MEETS

The importance of renewing the three-mill levy at the November election was stressed in a talk given by G. A. Albro Hall at a meeting Friday night of the Pearl Street School-Teacher association. Mrs. C. K. Baldwin led community singing and Miss Esther Eggleston conducted devotions. June and Warren Augenstein sang a duet, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. F. W. Sinning. A report of the recent state convention in Cincinnati was given by Mrs. E. G. Leffler.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN PEACOCK are chairmen of the host and hostess committee for the initial dance of the Wednesday Night Dance club's 1940-41 season, Wednesday evening at Schwinger's hall. They are being assisted in planning for the event by Mr. and Mrs. George Alber, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Brashares, Dr. and Mrs. Frank R. Mann, Mr. and Mrs. John Smith, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Ray R. King.

A GROUP of Marion and Cleveland friends attended the Ohio State-Minnesota game Saturday afternoon and later made up a dinner party at Hotel Harding. The party included Mr. and Mrs. Lambert Ringhaver and Mr. and Mrs. Al Gladden of Cleveland, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Grumblatt, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Wright, Miss Louise Foreman, Miss Mary Cook, Harold Ryder and Everett Miller. Mr. and Mrs. Ringhaver and Mr. and Mrs. Gladden were week-end guests of Miss Cook at her home on West Church street and Miss Foreman of 301 East Church street.

A birthday surprise at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Riley of 189 North Seffner avenue Sunday was in honor of the anniversary of Mrs. Riley. A basket dinner was served. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Copley and daughter, Irene and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Copley of Fostoria, Miss Lois Copley of Fort Wayne, Ind., Mrs. Caroline Roberts, Mrs. C. G. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. John Kehrwecker, Mr. and Mrs. Myrle Burnette and daughters, Edna Mae, Mary Ellen and Roberta Pauline, Rita Lewis, Maxine Kehrwecker, George Lewis Jr. and Nelson Riley.

Mrs. Merle Lust, the former Miss Mildred Turner, was given a shower Thursday evening by her sister, Mrs. Russell McCoy of the Lido apartments. She found her gifts, bathroom accessorie, beneath an improvied shower of pastel serpentine encircled by a bath curtain of old rose and white. Mrs. Robert Wheeler won the award in contests. Guests were Mrs. Lust and her mother, Mrs. N. L. Turner, Mrs. Lloyd Ackley Turner, Mrs. James Ralston, Mrs. Lester Kramer, Mrs. Russell Cramer, Mrs. Leslie Bunnell, Mrs. George Lust, Mrs. Ray Welser, Mrs. Paul Tong, Mrs. Wheeler, Miss Lavine Neidhart, Miss Doris Wilkins, Miss Frances Snyder, Miss Ardis Douce and Miss Mary Mahaffey.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Klingle of Pearl street were hosts at a party last evening honoring Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Davis of 250½ Pearl street. Mr. Davis, formerly in the clerical department of the Osgood Co., went to Washington, D. C., late last night to accept a government position. Mrs. Davis will join him in the near future.

After an evening of playing whoopee, the hostess served lunch and all of the guests accompanied Mr. Davis to the bus depot. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Don Creviston, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Don Yoakum, Miss Florence Shackelford, Ray Augenstein, Clarence Fisher, Valjean Brady and Charles Klingle.

Mrs. C. W. Camp of 130 West Mark street gave a party Friday afternoon from 3:30 to 5 o'clock to celebrate the seventh birthday anniversary of her son Shannon. Guests were his teacher at the Oak Street school, Miss Betty Baker, Jack Schrader, Jack Postell, Jack Obenour, John Thompson, Albert Best, Maurice Mettler, Tommy Weaver, Gene Zahn, Terry Forbis, Jnn Camp and Mrs. J. H. Keeler and Mrs. I. E. Beaver, grandmother and aunt of the guest of honor.

Shannon received many gifts. Honors in contests were won by Albert Best, John Thompson and Jack Postell. The favors and appointments for the lunch were in keeping with Halloween. Mrs. Keeler and Mrs. Beaver assisted the hostess.

Mrs. W. R. Yocom and Mrs. Clifford Bartlett were hostesses to the H and H club Friday evening at Ringer's Inn. Dinner was followed by an evening of cards. Mrs. J. A. Lott and Miss Mildred Moore were guests. Appointments for the dinner were in keeping with the Halloween season. Awards for high scores were won by Mrs. J. A. Raub and Mrs. Robert Keller, and Miss Moore received the galloping award.

A surprise party yesterday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Bosh of Hane avenue was in observance of Mrs. Bosh's birthday anniversary. A potluck dinner was served at noon at a table decorated with a lighted birthday cake and a bouquet of red roses. Places were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Bosh, Mr. and Mrs. Don Bosh and children Don Jr., Louis, Margaret, Jerry and David of Iberia and Mr. and Mrs. B. H. DeVoe, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Mrs. Everett Uncapher was a guest of the Ladies' Embroidery circle when her mother, Mrs. Rose Helwig of Pearl street, entertained Friday afternoon.

After a social hour the hostess, assisted by her granddaughters, Joan and Marian Uncapher, served a 6 o'clock dinner. The table centerpiece was of fall flowers. Bouquets of fall garden flowers decorated the rooms.

Children and grandchildren of Mrs. Margaret Norris of 320 West Center street joined her yesterday in celebration of her eighty-fourth birthday anniversary. Among guests was her sister, Mrs. Della Best of Coshocton. Mrs. Norris received a number of gifts and remembrances. She makes her home with her daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Fisher.

Mrs. Malcolm Severns entertained with a surprise party Saturday evening in celebration of the birthday anniversary of Mr. Severns. The celebrant received a number of remembrances. Present were Sheriff and Mrs. Fred Miller, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Eikenbary, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Tatman, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Turner.

Mrs. Nellie Scott of 767 West Center street entertained a group of relatives and friends last evening at her home complimenting her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Goines. Mr. Goines is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Goines of Delaware. The evening was spent socially.

Members of the Scribblers club opened the 1940-41 season and also observed National Poetry day Friday afternoon at the home of Miss Maye Evangeline Lawrence on East Center street. Dr. Edward Ellsworth Hipsher, former associate editor of The Etude, and an author, composer and instructor of music, was a guest and also acted as critic for the program hour. The November meeting will be with Mrs. S. L. Leeka of East Center street.

Mrs. Lottie Hull of West Pleasant street was hostess Friday evening to the Val-Dura club. Guests were Mrs. Madge Dill and Mrs. Mary Quick. Euchre was played, honors going to Mrs. Eva Bailer, first, Mrs. Myrtabelle Morris, second, Mrs. Laura Eaton, third, and Mrs. Maude Fox, lone hand.

The following is a list of books recommended for entertainment and educational reading by Mrs. Depew Head of Columbus, whose book reviews are a part of the 1940-41 program for the Marion County Federation of Women's clubs:

Betty Blunt—"Bet It's a Boy." Story in picture of expectant motherhood. A riot.

Katharine Brush—"This Is On Me"—Frank, witty, sparkles with personality. Includes stories, essays as well as revealing autobiography.

Lucien Ben Burman—"Big River To Cross"—It will take strength of will power not to drop everything and take a trip down the Mississippi river after reading.

Jake Falstaff—"Jacoby's Corners"—Rural boyhood in Ohio a generation ago, told as only a poet could tell it. Nostalgic and refreshing.

Robert McCloskey—"Lentil"—Another juvenile adults adore. Mid-west Americans.

Stewart Edward White—"White Geese Calling"—A fine young couple, representing America at its best with courage and humor, make their new home in Alaska.

Significant Fiction

Nina Fedorova—"The Family"—A gay, heart warming story of a family of White Russians, who open their boarding home to the strangest collection of boarders ever gathered under one roof. Out of their experiences comes a novel truly of and for our time.

Walter Havighurst—"The Winds of Spring"—Pioneering in Wisconsin, from a new angle, that of the scholar and artist. The author knows Wisconsin, he knows the Scandinavian countries and he knows how to write—the result is one of the best of our regional novels.

Alice T. Hobart—"Their Own Country"—Story of present day business and competition, with the attending problems of security in a topsy turvy world, and a wife's contribution to her husband's adjustment.

Thomas Mann—"The Beloved Returns"—A novel of Goethe—with Lotte, "the beloved" returning to Weimar to see Goethe after a separation of most of their adult life. Presents Mann's philosophy of the artist.

Willard Robertson—"Moon Tide"—A poignant story of driftwood on a California waterfront, handled with tenderness and conviction. A most unusual story excellently done.

Jan Struther—"Mrs. Miniver"—The most adorable and quotable figure in summer fiction. Read this and you know why the poet's sweetest lines have been dedicated to England.

Historical Fiction

Iola Fuller—"The Loon Feather"—Laid in Mackinaw islands—heroine, daughter of the great Tecumseh. One of my prime favorites.

Inglis Fletcher—"Raleigh's Eden"—Colonial and Revolutionary days in the Carolinas. Colorful, fast moving and yet dignified and thoughtful. Significant today.

Beatrice Seymour—"The Unquiet Field"—An English saga, of a famous ship building family—showing how their firm was involved for more than a century in various world disturbances—particularly the question of slavery, showing that reforms do not come in a day—but come gradually. Distinct quality.

Upton Sinclair—"World's End"—A story concerned with the last World war. The family is involved in the problem of munition making. One of the finest pictures of the making of Versailles treaty to be found in fiction or non-fiction.

Biography

Holbrook—"Ethan Allen"; Van Wyck Brooks—"New England: Indian Summer;" Harlan Hatcher—"The Buckeye Country"; John Buchan—"Pilgrim's Way"; Margaret Armstrong—"Trelawney."

WOMAN NEAR MARTEL AND CRESTLINE MAN MARRIED

Special to The Star

MARTEL, Oct. 21—The marriage of Miss Willo Neff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Neff of near here, and Zenith Waldbauer of Crestline took place Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in Memorial Methodist church at Caledonia. Rev. Burke White of Bernardsville, N. J., cousin of the bride read the service in an open church ceremony.

Mr. Neff gave his daughter in marriage, and her attendants were her sister, Mrs. Chester Galleher of Mt. Gilead, matron of honor, and Misses Willogene Foos of Caledonia, a niece, and Miss Marylouse Roberts of Marion, bridesmaids. A niece, Peggy Sue Galleher of Mt. Gilead was her flower girl.

Rubin Phaller of Shelby served Mr. Waldbauer as best man and ushers were John Swarer of Crestline and William F. Lee of Mt. Gilead.

Well, the latest development in the political picture seems to be the question of polls. The Gallup poll indicates that F.D.R. is leading the parade at the moment—while the Roger Dunn poll has Willkie out in front. WEDDINGS

Immediate families and close friends were present for the wedding of Miss Etta Smiley, daughter of Mrs. Lottie B. Smiley of 268 Park boulevard, and Oliver M. Rowley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Rowley of 151 Dix avenue, yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in First Presbyterian church. Rev. Howard L. Olewiler, pastor, read the single ring service. The altar was decorated with white satin, greenery and two large bouquets of white gladioli and white pompons.

The bride's sister, Miss Olga Smiley, was the maid of honor and Robert Goelz of Youngstown was the best man.

The bride was in a soldier blue costume with navy blue accessories and wore a corsage of Sweetheart roses and white pompons. The maid of honor also was in soldier blue, with black accessories. Her flowers were red roses and white pompons.

An informal reception was given at the Rowley home, after which Mr. and Mrs. Rowley went to Columbus where they will live at the Southern hotel for several weeks. Mr. Rowley is a senior in journalism at Ohio State university and Mrs. Rowley is a student at the Marion Beauty school.

The marriage of Miss Mary Louise Briggs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Briggs of St. Clair street, and Joseph James Galyk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Galyk of 485 Patterson street, was announced today. The wedding took place Thursday evening in St. Mary rectory with Rev. Father William J. Snickerman, pastor of St. Mary Catholic church, officiating.

Hoopman - Mack Vows Exchanged at Couple's Home

MISS MARIE HOOPMAN, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Hoopman of the Canaan road, became the bride of Lowell Mack, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Mack of the Richland road, in a ceremony yesterday morning at 11:30 o'clock in their newly furnished home on the Barks road.

Rev. Bruce Kreis, Lutheran minister from Philo, O., and a cousin of the bride, read the double ring ceremony before an improvised altar. Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Bruce Kreis sang "On Promise Me" by de Koven, and "Beautiful Dreamer" by Foster. As the Lohengrin wedding march was played by Mrs. Russell Pett of Struthers, O., sister of the bridegroom, the bride entered the living room on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage.

The rings were carried on rosebuds by little Miss Marilyn Mack, niece of the bridegroom. Mrs. Ernest Gast, sister of the bride, was the bridesmaid and LeRoy Mack served his brother as best man.

The bride wore a street length dress of soldier blue alpaca made with a shirred bodice, full skirt and elbow-length puffed sleeves. The accessories were in dubonet shade. Her jewelry was a gold bracelet belonging to her grandmother, and a necklace belonging to her sister. Her flowers were red rose buds and pink pompons in a shoulder corsage.

Mrs. Gast was in a rose wool crepe dress with black accessories and wore a shoulder corsage of yellow rosebuds and pompons.

The bride's mother was in a navy sheer crepe, with matching accessories and Mrs. Mack wore a blue and white crepe dress with chiffon redingote.

After the ceremony a wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents. The table was centered with a four-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom.

Immediately after dinner Mr. and Mrs. Mack left on an extended trip through Michigan, Canada and New York. Upon their return they will be at their home on the Barks road. For traveling Mrs. Mack wore a cardinal red suedette dress with black accessories and a finger tip length fur jacket.

Guests at the wedding and dinner were Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Mack, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Mack and children James and Marilyn, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Hoopman, and Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Hoopman of Marion, Rev. and Mrs. Bruce Kries and children Robert, Donald, Leland and Barbara of Philo, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Fett of Struthers and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Gast of Richwood.

Bayles - Mehaffey Nuptials Read in Marion Church

MISS OPAL BAYLES, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Bayles of 237 Windsor street, became the bride of Charles Mehaffey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mehaffey of Prospect, in a ceremony yesterday afternoon in First Evangelical and Reformed church.

Preceding the single ring service read at 1:45 o'clock by the pastor, Rev. E. H. Wierth, Mrs. Fred Sinning played a program of nuptial music including "Ave Maria," Gounod, "Oh Promise Me," de Koven and "I Love You Truly," Bond. During the ceremony she played "Liebestraum," Liszt, and for the recessional she played the Mendelssohn wedding march.

The bride wore a velvet dress in a burgundy shade with matching accessories. Her flowers were gardenias arranged in a corsage.

Miss Marguerite Bayles, who was her sister's bridesmaid and only attendant, wore a black costume with matching accessories, and a corsage of pink rosebuds and pompons.

Mac Rinnert served Mr. Mehaffey as best man.

Following the ceremony there was an informal reception at the church and later the couple left on a week's wedding trip through the east. For traveling the bride wore an ensemble of blue and old rose. Upon their return they will make their home near Prospect. The bride was graduated from Harding High school in 1939 and the Marion Business college. She has been employed in the office of T. H. Mallor, public accountant and industrial engineer. Mr. Mehaffey was graduated from the Prospect High school in 1937.

Out-of-town guests here for the wedding were Mrs. Harry Liebman of Los Angeles, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gecks of Columbus, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bowen and son, Edgar of Cleveland, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Rinnert and daughter, Helen of Prospect, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Speece and daughters, Fern and LaVern of Kirkpatrick, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Behrens and R. E. Young of Prospect, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bender and family of Waldo.

Personal Mention

Mrs. Lydia O. Collins of 149 Latourette street and her daughter, Mrs. Wallace Shackelford of Akron, left yesterday for Pensacola, Fla., where they will visit Mrs. Collins' son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Collins.

Boy and Girl Scouts Depending On Your Support of Community Fund

Lessons in Americanism and Public Service Part of Busy Program Carried on by Marion Troops.

In support of the annual Community Fund campaign, scheduled Oct. 23-28, The Star is publishing a series of stories outlining the activities of the agencies which are depending on the Fund for help during the coming year. The following concerns the Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts.

Now as never before in history, the young people of the United States need to understand and appreciate the American way of life. They need to know democracy, the fine art of living and letting live, the rights of themselves and of others.

In recent years while many an American looked upon displays of patriotism as silly or old-fashioned, the Boy and Girl Scouts not only in Marion but throughout the country were getting practical training in Americanism. And they still are.

There are perhaps no other organizations in the country which have done more to teach American youth the American way.

It's not an easy thing to do—teach democracy, but the Scout organizations, with long years of experience, go about it rather simply. They let the boys and girls find out for themselves, by doing things, by learning, by living and working with other young people.

That scouting is a democratic force is shown by the fact that Europe's dictators have abolished it. They don't like its individualism and its freedom of thought and action.

Typical of the attitude of scouting is a new program to line up the Scouts for emergency service and a "mobilization" in which every boy will be tested for his ability to react quickly to a rush call to a central point. Closely connected with this program will be a drive for more troops and Scouts.

The new program of action, according to Fred P. Strother, Harding area Scout executive, is in line with national defense. In cooperation with other national organization, the Boy Scouts are thus doing their bit to invigorate and preserve democracy. The plan calls for a complete inventory of every troop to determine its "boy-power" for emergency duty.

Marion's Setup

Take Marion's Boy Scout setup for example. About 330 Marion boys reach the age of 12 each year and more than 100 of them join the scouts. Right now Marion county has 297 Scouts, 39 Cubs and 24 Senior Scouts ranging in age from 9 to 18. It is the hope of scout officials to keep one boy out of every four for a four-year training period.

All these boys through scouting come into contact with good men from all walks of life. In this area troops are sponsored by American Legion posts, the Y. M. C. A., Rotary, Lions, Elks and other clubs, a fire department and other groups.

The troops, small units of 21 boys and two adult leaders, are financed by the boys themselves in almost all cases. It isn't like paying a membership fee in a "fun" organization, although play and recreation are a large part of scouting.

Do Man-Sized Jobs

The boys do man-sized work. They take part in various civic affairs, serving as ushers, they stage the annual pilgrimage to the Harding tomb, carry on Memorial day activities (including decoration of 400 graves in Marion cemetery).

They do traffic duty in parade, work on the Community Fund, serve as color guards at services, and in general live up to their law: "A Scout is Helpful."

In the educational field, they have their merit badge system, troop expeditions into the country or to industrial plants. Some go to distant camps in addition to the well-equipped Camp John A. Owens in Pleasant township. Camp Owens isn't strictly a summer camp. More than 500 boys camped overnight there between August 1939 and June 1940 in addition to the summer session.

The camp is also used by the Girl Scouts and by the Rotary club which sponsors a crippled children's camp in August. In the last two years 2,859 persons used the camp facilities.

Heads Area Group

Dr. Frank R. Mann of Marion, Harding area president, heads the scout setup in Marion, Morrow, Crawford and Wyandot counties. Other area officials includes E. B. Willey, health and safety chairman; C. M. Howser, camping chairman; C. E. Gebhart of Bucyrus, finance chairman, and A. H. Exton, training chairman. J. W. Llewellyn is chairman for the Marion district, Cecil W. Gabler is organization chairman and R. M. Miller is district commissioner.

Scoutmasters, volunteers who give hundreds of hours annually to work with the boys, and the sponsors are: John Williams (Troop 1, Elks lodge); Harold White (Troop 2, Edison P.-T. A.); J. A. Lott (Troop 3, Epworth Methodist church); C. H. Howard (Troop 5, American Legion); Edwin K. Smith (Troop 6, First Presbyterian church); Wilfred Smith (Troop 7, First Reformed church); Milton Lashley (Troop 11, Park Street A. M. E. church); Clyde Burnside (Troop 12, United Brethren church; Harold Augenstein (Troop 15, Emanuel Lutheran church); Carl and Clyde Rech (Troop 24, 40 et 8); Thomas Coon (Troop 26, Wesley Methodist church); Carl Ford (North Main school troop).

Girl Scout Movement

The Girl Scout movement's main objective is to help girls adapt themselves through their experiences in a democratic group so that they become participating citizens of their community.

In Marion there are 16 Girl Scout units adapted to three age levels — the Brownies for girls from 7 to 10; the Intermediate program from girls 10 to 14 and the senior program for those from 14 to 18.

Each girl is offered a 10-part program, designed to give her a well-rounded experience; nature, out-of-doors, sports and games, music and dancing, arts and crafts, dramatics, community life, health and safety, international friendship and homemaking.

Throughout the program service is stressed. In the past year, for example, Marion Girl Scouts dressed dolls for less fortunate children at Christmas time; carols were sung to shut-ins and favors made for hospital trays. The girls also helped in the annual sale of Christmas health seals.

Plans are under way to set up a service bureau to find something which each Girl Scout can do to serve her community. It is a part of a nationwide program designed to answer the frequent question of the girls: "What can I do to help?"

Group Grows

Marion's Girl Scout organization has prospered in the last nine months, increasing 27 per cent in membership, until today there are 386 girls and adults associated with the movement.

The growth is understandable when a few of the activities are considered. This summer, for instance, 100 girls camped at Camp John A. Owens during a three-week period. Day camping at McKinley park and the Indian mounds drew 124 girls.

Booked for the very near future, Oct. 27-Nov. 2, is Girl Scout Week of which there will be special observance here with group meetings and group displays in downtown stores, showing scout projects.

On Nov. 3 the girls will participate in the annual Harding pilgrimage and place a wreath on the tomb of Mrs. Harding.

Other coming events are the visit Nov. 27 of Miss Ruth Schroeder, regional director; a camp reunion in December; annual council meeting in January; annual cookie sale next spring.

Have Own "Little House"

Probably the greatest forward step of the organization in the last year was acquisition of the "Little House", a home rented for offices and meeting rooms. The girls, with the aid of many interested persons, have scrubbed, painted and furnished the house, which is located at 124 East Columbia street.

The Girl Scouts, as do the Boy Scouts, have adult leaders and almost everyone of these in the past year has received some training in their work. Twenty volunteers were sent to national schools.

Girl Scout activities in Marion are in charge of Miss Dorothy Brownell, Girl Scout director, who came here from Toledo to take over her duties Sept. 3.

Girl Scout Council

Members of the Girl Scout council are: Miss Marion Conley, Mrs. R. G. Donley, Mrs. Clyde Faust, Mrs. J. E. Frew, Mrs. Ellis Houghton, Mrs. Clifford Howser, Miss Elma Howser, Mrs. E. T. Huber, Mrs. Ray King, Miss Ruth Kleinmaier, Miss Ruth Kramer, Miss Mary Kull, Mrs. Jessie Lott, Mrs. William Martin, Mrs. Richard Myers, Mrs. J. E. Oliphant Mrs. Minnie Rayl, Mrs. Abe Schoen, Mrs. Elmer Smith, Mrs. E. O. Smith, Mrs. F. L. Thomas, Mrs. J. W. Wiant, Mrs. Fillmore Young. The officers of the council, who will be installed Monday evening, Oct. 28, are: commissioner, Mrs. E. O. Smith; vice commissioner, Mrs. J. W. Wiant; second vice commissioner, Mrs. Ellis Houghton; secretary, Miss Ruth Kramer; treasurer, Mrs. J. E. Oliphant.

Leaders of Girl Scout Troops are: Brownies—Troop 21, Mrs. Richard Myers; Troop 22, Mrs. H. E. Bracy. Intermediate Groups: Troop 2, Miss Margaret McAfee; Troop 6, Mrs. Roy Everly; Troop 7, Mrs. Ruth Wood; Troop 8, Miss Ruth Rowland; Mrs. V. H. Barnhill; Troop 11, Miss Ona Rowland; Troop 12, Mrs. Richard Denman; Troop 14, Miss Virginia O'Dowd; Troop 15, Mrs. L. A. Shields; Troop 16, Mrs. R. G. Augenstein; Troop 17, Mrs. Saranne Jefferies; Troop 23, Mrs. W. C. Haldeman; Troop 25, Mrs. Russel Dunlap. Senior Troops; Troop 1, Miss Marian Conley; Troop 3, Miss Emily Wolfel; Troop 5, Miss Marguerite Gehring.

Marriage Meddlers

By ADELE GARRISON

Leslie's Revelations, as Told by Veritzen, and the Former's Price of Silence, Appall Madge and Lillian.

PHILIP VERITZEN has so much natural—and cultivated histrionism in him that when he is repeating a conversation he subconsciously imitates perfectly the voice which spoke to him. I found myself shivering, and I knew that Lillian shared my reaction to his recital of what Leslie had said to him. It was Leslie's voice, fairly dripping venom, that we heard coming from the great impresario's lips.

"Leslie's voice held cruel gloating in it," Mr. Veritzen went on, "and I realized that his hatred of Noel must extend to me. And then, in crisp, simple language, damning in its detail, he told me two horrible things, first that I had hired him to make a murderous assault upon Noel, not wholly killing him, but damaging his facial appearance, and ruining the arm with which he plays the violin."

The horror in his face as he spoke banished from my mind every vestige of doubt that he was indeed ignorant of what Leslie had done. But I could not find words to phrase my belief, and I was glad when Lillian spoke quickly and effectively:

"But, remember, Phil, he didn't succeed in seriously hurting Noel. That's a comfort, surely. Now tell us the other thing he said you hired him to do."

The lines which shock and horror had etched in his face deepened perceptibly at her question.

Something Horrible

"It was something even more horrible," he said, and an unmistakable shudder swept over him. "That fiend sat there as calmly as if he were reciting an arithmetic lesson, and told me I had hired him to inveigle Mary into so damning and convincing a situation that neither Noel nor any other man who revered good women would ever wish to marry her. He also told me that I had offered him a bonus if he could succeed in really accomplishing her moral ruin instead of merely compromising her."

He had reached the nadir of shame. We both saw that, as his leonine head, always held so proudly erect, bowed itself so that his eyes were hidden from us. And his voice, usually so resonant, was almost a whisper when he finished speaking.

Again it was Lillian who came to the rescue.

"And we're here to tell you that he didn't even get to first base on that second proposition," she said. "He gave Noel a nasty clout or two, but he didn't put even the tiniest dent in Mary's reputation, thanks to the best chaperon in the whole wide world."

She waved an airy hand at me, and the sad wraith of a smile touched Philip Veritzen's lips.

"I am infinitely grateful," he said, but he did not look at either of us, and Lillian, with a significant look at me, again urged him to revelation.

The Price of Silence

"What was the task he wanted you to perform in exchange for his silence?" she prodded gently.

His tortured eyes begged us for understanding of what he was about to say.

"He told me," he began slowly, "that I must manoeuver a chance to stay inside this house for the next few days, and engineer an entrance for himself and his gang—he calls them his aides."

"He would," Lillian said, and because there was no reason for the remark, I knew that she must be purposely trying to make Philip's revelation a lengthy affair, with an opportunity for her to dissect it mentally as he went on.

"Did he give you any inkling of what he means to do if he does gain an entrance?" she asked.

"Yes he did," Mr. Veritzen answered despondently. "He wants to secure possession of the Chief. He said that if he could get hold of the Chief, dead or alive, but preferably alive—he would pledge his word never to attempt to molest either Noel or Mary again.

OHIO TRAFFIC TOLL HITS 21

Three Killed in One Accident as Train Smashes Into Automobile.

By The Associated Press

At least 21 persons died in Ohio traffic over the week-end.

Three of the victims were killed instantly by a freight train that struck their automobile at a crossing seven miles east of Alliance. They were identified as Mrs. Harvey N. Donohue, 21, driver of the automobile; Mrs. Edith Donohue, 47, his sister-in-law; and George Donohue, 3, her son. Four other persons in the automobile were injured.

L. W. Welsh of Mansfield, Pennsylvania railroad engineer, was quoted by sheriff's deputies as saying the automobile apparently stalled on tracks near the village of Beloit.

Other fatalities included:

Piketon-Floyd Ware, 55, struck crossing street.

London—Mrs. Helen Riley, 18, and Austin Cox, 40, in collision near prison farm.

Coshocton—C. B. Woodard, 60, of Plainfield, auto-truck collision.

Cleveland—Charles Mooren, 50, struck by automobile; Andres Gruss, 71, struck crossing street; Austin Padgett, auto hit street car.

Columbus—Mrs. Alta Loschiavo, 42, of Columbia and Lloyd Snyder, 20, of Wooster in crash; Arthur D. Harden, 25, auto hit utility pole. Mrs. Helen Cowan Krebs, 38, of crash injuries received Oct. 1.

Springfield—Mrs. Louise McCulloh, 52, and her daughter, Mrs. Mary L. Benedict, 24, in route 40 collision.

Eaton—Alberna Noaker, 16, fell from moving automobile.

Cincinnati—Betty Levitz, 18, pinned under overturned automobile; Mrs. Margaret Murphy, 65, in collision.

Dayton—William Havemann, 23, of Cincinnati, in auto crash.

Canton—Herbert H. Parr, 42, crushed by overturned tractor.

JUVENILE GRANGE PARTY

GREEN CAMP—Lois and Kenneth Rothfuss entertained 30 members of Mt. Olive Juvenile grange and guests at a Halloween party Friday night. Dick Knachel received the award as the ugliest dressed, Kenneth Johnson as the funniest and Joan Robbins the best dressed. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Carl Rothfuss, assisted by Mrs. Walter Long, matron of the grange.

TO MEET THURSDAY

The Likens Chapel Ladies' Aid society will hold an all-day meeting Thursday at the home of Mrs. Ruth Ella Windom northwest of Marion.

Be Quick To Treat Bronchitis

Chronic bronchitis may develop if your cough, chest cold, or acute bronchitis is not treated and you cannot afford to take a chance with any medicine less potent than Creomulsion which goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes.

Creomulsion blends beechwood creosote by special process with other time tested medicines for coughs. It contains no narcotics.

No matter how many medicines you have tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough, permitting rest and sleep, or you are to have your money back. (Adv.)

STEEL PRODUCTION SEED-UP WAY CITED

Expert Says Bessemer Method Boosts Output.

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, Oct. 21 — The national metal congress was told today the United States could speed up steel production for defense purposes by returning to the Bessemer process.

The steel-making method which about the time of the civil war introduced the nation's steel age and then fell into comparative disuse through a trend toward open hearth production, was described by H. W. Graham, director of metallurgy and research for the Jones & Laughlin Steel Corp. at Pittsburgh.

Of immediate interest to those attending the five-day congress and exposition, which opened today, were possibilities for increasing production by making greater use of existing Bessemer facilities, and at the same time conserving the nation's strategic supply of scrap.

"The Bessemer process is more than self-sufficient on scrap and produces scrap as a by-product," Graham declared in an address.

"The open hearth method constantly uses more scrap than it produces and this deficit must be supplied by trade scrap originating from previously manufactured articles."

At present near-capacity production, the output of "Bessemer steel is much too low for a correct balance of process within the steel industry, and this factor will continue to exert its economic pressure in the direction of increased Bessemer production," Graham declared.

Although production of Bessemer—regarded as better than open hearth steel for welding purposes, certain kinds of wire and for "screw stock," because it is easily machined — presents more problems than open hearth steel, Graham declared, "if the process were given even a portion of the lavish technical aid provided for the open-hearth process, it might retain its proportionate place." Of the nation's 80,000,000 ingot ton annual output, about 6,000,000 tons are Bessemer.

An air line engineer has invented a device to force filtered air into airplane engine ignition cables to protect them from moisture and combustion gases that permit ignition leaks and speed corrosion.

YOUR HEALTH

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M. D.

Questions and Answers

E. B.:—"If one is bitten by a black widow spider what is the first thing to do if the person cannot get to a doctor at once?"

Answer—Rest is very important. There is a great deal of pain and the victim is restless and wants to walk around. This increases the circulation of the poison. Rest must be enforced. Plenty of water to drink and a dose of salts to dilute the poison and carry it off. Hot or cold applications to the spot of the bite.

A. R.:—"Would you consider a person who has twice been vaccinated for typhoid fever to be permanently immune? The vaccinations were given about three and a half years apart and three inoculations were given each time."

Answer—Yes. Such an opinion is not simply the result of chance observations. There is a definite blood test—the Weidal reaction—which determines whether typhoid immune bodies are present in the blood or not. Experience with large groups has shown that after one vaccination immunity lasts about seven years in half the cases and much longer than that in the rest. After a second vaccination, immunity is permanent. These considerations apply to ordinary conditions. The experience of armies in the field shows that immunity breaks down in the presence of virulent massive infection and that individual prevention is not a substitute for sanitary precautions.

C. B. G., McKeesport, Pa. — "I have read in your column of the efficacy of the use of Vitamin E in treating paralysis. Would it help multiple sclerosis?"

Answer—I have received several inquiries of this nature. Vitamin E has not been used successfully in multiple sclerosis.

* * *

Constant Reader, Logan, Ind.—"Is it harmful to take a teaspoonful of salts in warm water before breakfast. I am so constipated I have to take something all the time."

Answer—Salts simply add to constipation. Nobody ever got over constipation by using salts. Switch to bran or mineral oil for a while.

* * *

Y. T., Meriden, Conn.: — "Is cream of tartar of any value in the treatment of acne? If so, how is it used?"

Answer—Cream of tartar is potassium bitartrate. It is a simple cathartic salt. Its only value in the treatment of acne would be theoretically to rid the body of poisons or as a local application.

MISS McFARLAND TELLS— WHY SHE SELECTED

SOFKURD

VITAMIN D MILK

For the GASCO Cooking School

I recommend SofKurd Vitamin D Milk because it remains liquid throughout digestion. Since no curds are formed the digestive juices can act on the many food substances contained in milk. Vitamin D is a food factor. It is necessary so that the body may properly use the bone and tooth building minerals, calcium and phosphorous, which we get from our foods.

Answers to Questions . . . .

Why Your Family Should Use SOFKURD Vitamin D Milk

WHAT IS SOFKURD VITAMIN D?

● It is a pure, fresh pasteurized milk subjected to a scientific process which consists basically in the rearrangement of the minerals so as to prevent the formation of curds when the milk is taken into the stomach. Vitamin D is added by means of a concentrate, processed under licenses from the Wisconsin Alumni Research Foundation.

IS SOFKURD VITAMIN D DIFFERENT FROM OTHER VITAMIN D MILKS OR SOFT CURD MILKS?

● SofKurd Vitamin D must not be confused with other Vitamin D milk or soft curd milks. It is the only milk that remains liquid during digestion. Hence, the fats, proteins, carbohydrates and the minerals (such as calcium and phosphorus) and vitamins are more readily and more completely utilized.

HOW DOES SOFKURD VITAMIN D DIFFER FROM OTHER MILKS IN TASTE AND APPEARANCE?

● SofKurd Vitamin D is a fresh, sweet pasteurized cow's milk and has the same taste and appearance as all other high grade milks.

Can everyone drink SofKurd Vitamin D?

● Many people have heretofore been unable to drink milk because the formation of curds in the stomach caused various forms of digestive distress. SofKurd forms no such curds, but remains liquid. Therefore, it causes absolutely no distress, while making readily available all of the food values in the milk.

HOW MUCH SOFKURD VITAMIN D SHOULD ONE DRINK EACH DAY?

● Eminent physicians have long recommended a quart of milk a day for every growing child. In consideration of the more extensive diet of most adults, a pint a day would be about right to supply the deficiencies in the ordinary adult diet. Many authorities, however, believe that a quart of milk a day would also be of benefit to adults. SofKurd Vitamin D is so well proportioned in nutritional values that it is highly recommended for ADULTS as well as children.

IS SOFKURD VITAMIN D AN ALL PURPOSE MILK?

● Yes. SofKurd Vitamin D can be used for every purpose that we use any other milk except where coagulation is required.

WHAT IS THE CALCIUM AND PHOSPHORUS CONTENT OF SOFKURD VITAMIN D?

● Each quart of SofKurd Vitamin D contains not less than one gram of calcium and nearly a gram of phosphorus. This corresponds with other foods as follows:

CALCIUM		Potatoes or
16½ Oranges, or		22 Eggs
2 1-10 lbs. Celery or		7 lbs. of Cabbage

GROUP PLANS AREA MEETING WEDNESDAY

...ries of Spanish War Veterans To Convene.

Members of Betsy Ross Tent No. 14 Auxiliary to Marion Camp No. 32 United Spanish War Veterans will be hostesses to auxiliaries in District No. 3 at a school of instruction Wednesday.

Mrs. R. M. Miller, senior vice president of the district, will preside for the meeting, to be held in the Legion Dugout. In the afternoon the local auxiliary will exemplify the ritual in charge of the president, Mrs. Beth Monk. Mrs. E. R. Bondley, a past state president, will extend the welcome.

Mrs. Ethel B. Foster of Cleveland, department president, will conduct an inspection of the work of Betsy Ross auxiliary in the afternoon. The district includes Springfield, Sidney, Urbana, Bellefontaine, Van Wert, Wapakoneta, Lima, Kenton, Upper Sandusky, Bucyrus and Marion.

Ten tables were filled for cards at the social meeting sponsored by the auxiliary Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carson B. Shetterly on Windsor street. Awards for high scores in euchre were won by Mrs. Ray Anthony and Fred Morrison, and in bridge Mrs. Scott Howison won the award. Special awards were won by Mrs. Thomas Hoover and Robert Poland.

Assistant hostesses were Mrs. E. R. Bondley, Mrs. Scott Howison, Mrs. E. E. Glosser and Mrs. Gertrude Michel. Friday evening the members will hold a joint session with the veterans and there will be lunch and cards.

EPWORTH EVANGELIST HEARD BY LARGE CROWDS

Two large crowds attended revival services yesterday at Epworth Methodist church.

The evangelist, Rev. John R. Church of Winston-Salem, N. C., preached in the morning on "The Prodigal Who Stayed at Home." He dealt with the elder son in the parable of the prodigal son, saying that this elder boy had been overlooked by most people but that in the sight of God this boy was a sinner just as much as the one who left home. "There are too many of the elder boy's type in the world today," he declared.

Tuesday through Friday there will be morning services at 9:30, children's meetings at 4 p. m. and young people's get-togethers at 7. Tuesday morning Rev. Church will speak on "Why Do the Righteous Suffer?"

CLUB OUTLINES PUBLIC PROGRAM FOR NAVY DAY

The program for the Navy day program Wednesday night at 8 in the V. F. W. hall on South Main street was outlined at a meeting Sunday of the Marion Navy club program committee and the program committee of Marion Post No. 3313, V. F. W.

The program, which will be announced Tuesday, will be open to the general public. All veterans' organizations and auxiliaries have been invited to attend.

Former Federal Dry Chief Dies at Hillsboro, O.

By The Associated Press

HILLSBORO, O., Oct. 21—Roy Asa Haynes, a stormy petrel of the early days of prohibition, died last night at his home at the age of 58.

Roy A. Haynes

Haynes, colorful, stout federal prohibition commissioner under Presidents Harding and Coolidge, was in charge of enforcement of the 18th amendment and the Volstead act. One of Harding's earliest supporters, he was appointed to the post in 1921 with the indorsement of the anti-saloon league and served until 1927.

He had been long prominent in anti-liquor campaigns and in church work and for many years was editor of the old Hillsboro Dispatch.

His work as commissioner, which brought him an honorary title of major, drew both praise and criticism. His supporters contended he was doing his best in the face of red tape, inefficiency, and interference, while his critics asserted that he was responsible for alleged failure to cope with bootlegging.

His activity in enforcement of the Volstead act drew a rebuke from President Nicholas Murray Butler of Columbia university, who urged respect for all laws and not merely for favorite laws.

DIES WARNS DETROIT PLANTS OF SABOTEURS

By The Associated Press

DETROIT, Oct. 21—Rep. Martin Dies (D-Tex.), chairman of the house committee investigating un-American activities, declared in an interview here today that he had "reliable information that in a short time" acts of sabotage would be committed in defense industries in this area.

He said that he had definite knowledge that there were 5,000 potential saboteurs employed here, many of them in key industries.

He said he planned to catalog each of the 5,000 individuals he described as "potential saboteurs" by name and occupation and endeavor to have them discharged from their jobs.

"Employers say they cannot fire some of these saboteurs because of the national labor relations board. We may have to have a show down on that," he added.

GOOD BEHAVIOR BRINGS PAROLE FOR ESCAPEE

By The Associated Press

RALEIGH, N. C., Oct.—Granville Deitz, who "made good" with an oil firm at Jackson, O., while a fugitive from prison, goes free today.

Gov. Clyde Hoey said Dietz' good conduct since his rearrest Nov. 5, 1935, had caused the governor to decide on a parole.

Convicted of second degree murder in the 1929 slaying of the police chief of Southern Pines, Deitz was sentenced to serve 30 years but escaped seven months later. The shooting followed an altercation when the officer stopped Deitz' automobile and searched it.

While a fugitive Deitz married his childhood sweetheart in West Virginia, settled on a farm in Ohio and became a trusted employe of the oil company.

7TH PERSON HELD IN WHITE SLAVE PROBE

Cleveland Youth Arrested for Questioning Here.

Glen Goebelt, 18, was arrested at his home in Cleveland and brought here Sunday to face a charge filed in connection with a recent white slave investigation.

In an affidavit filed in municipal court by Police Chief Marks, Goebelt is charged with "aiding and abetting" David C. Rogers, 44, of Mansfield who last week was arrested on a white slavery charge after a 20-year-old Cleveland girl reported to police she had been brought to Marion under false pretenses and forced to work at a house of ill-fame.

Goebelt is being held at City prison and was to be questioned by Prosecuting Attorney Paul D. Michel and other officials, Chief Marks said. Court officials said he probably will be arraigned before Judge Hazen this afternoon or tomorrow morning.

Goebelt is the seventh person to be arrested as a result of the investigation. Four women were arrested on disorderly conduct charges in a raid at a house at 689 Kenton avenue, which police say is owned by Mrs. Grace Pollock, a short time after the Cleveland girl told her story to officers. Mrs. Pollock and Rogers were arrested later.

This morning Mrs. Pollock complained to The Star that there was an error in an account in The Star Friday night in which it was stated that she had been arrested on two previous occasions here on charges of operating a house of ill-fame. An investigation disclosed that she had been arrested only once before, on Aug. 18, 1936, when she was arrested by Marion police and turned over to Bucyrus authorities on a charge of operating a house of ill-fame in Bucyrus.

CLASS MEMBERS HOLD REUNION AT GALION

GALION, Oct. 21—The presence in the city of Mrs. Olaf Johnson of Burns, Ore., the former Beatrice Clark of Galion, was the incentive for a reunion of members of the 1910 graduating class of Galion High school. Of the 31 members of the class, there were 14 present for a turkey dinner Saturday evening at the Maxwell House. They spent the evening socially, recalled events of the past, and told about incidents that had happened since schooldays.

Mayor W. M. King, one of the members of the class, took the group through the new city building.

They planned to meet again next year, during the first week in October, and elected the 1910 class president, Walter C. Mason as president, and Mrs. R. A. Godfrey as secretary.

Besides Mrs. Johnson and the Galion members of the class, the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schelb of Kalamazoo, Mich., Mr. and Mrs. George Schelb of Marion, Grace Cooper and Nell Freer, also of Marion, and Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Smith of Crestline.

SIX KILLED AS PLANE TANGLES PARACHUTE

By The Associated Press

MARIANNA, Ark., Oct. 21—The civil aeronautics authority will investigate a mid-air accident in which six persons were killed after a sightseeing plane became entangled in a stunt man's parachute at an air show and plunged 500 feet to earth.

Eye witnesses said the plane was circling slowly around the descending parachutist yesterday to give four passengers a close up view.

The dead: Ipaul Nalejawa, 30, Browersville, Minn., the parachutist; George Zorn, 30, Greenville, Miss., the pilot; Lawrence De Marke, 30, Paul Bowle, 35, J. M. Cook, 55, and Joe Campbell, 34.

Nalejawa's final leap, which started from another plane at an altitude of 3,000 feet, was billed as his 181st.

AT COLUMBUS MEETING

Representatives of all Marion Townsend clubs attended a state conference Saturday and Sunday in Columbus. Sessions were held at the Southern hotel and yesterday afternoon there was a rally in Memorial hall, with Senator Ralph Bruster of Maine, Mayor K. Burton of Cleveland, Congressmen Harry McGregor and George Bender as speakers. "No third term" was the conference theme. Speakers Saturday included Arthur Lamneck of Columbus, candidate for congress, and L. W. Jeffries, vice president of the national Townsend organization.

IN all the world there are few things which bring you such convenience, security and happiness at such little cost as the telephone. Costing only a few cents per day, the telephone affords protection from fire, accident, thieves, etc. . . . for that reason alone, it more than earns its keep.

Program by String Quartet Opens Lecture-Recital Concert Season

A program which combined charm and entertainment was presented by the Cincinnati Conservatory String quartet Sunday afternoon in the ballroom at Hotel Harding. The occasion was the opening of the fall and winter season of the Marion Lecture-Recital club and present for the program were members of the club and the club patrons.

The ensemble displayed unusually good technique and the performers received warm praise from their audience for their exceptional tone qualities and control.

In the four movements of the first number, "Lark," quartet in D major, opus 64, by Haydn, the audience musicians gave a splendid account of themselves in their individual work.

Schumann Selections

Perhaps the most appealing rendition was the opening movement of the Schumann number, "Piano Quintet" opus 44, played by the quartet and Miss Frances Burnette of Cincinnati. Being the most melodic of all the movements, the rendition was also the most charming. Particularly outstanding was the third movement of the quintet which the musicians played brilliantly.

The ensemble included Helen von Kreisler and Samuel Boghossian, violins, Leon Feldman, viola, and Gordon Epperson, violoncello, and Miss Burnette, pianist.

The quartet played the allegro moderato, adagio cantabile, menuette allegretto and finale vivace of the Haydn opus, and the allegro brillante, in modo d'una marcia, un poco lagamente, scherzo, molto vivace and allegro ma non troppo movements of the Schumann number.

On Radio Program

Sunday afternoon members of the club presented the second of a series of programs to be broadcast over WHKC, Columbus. On the program, presented at 1 o'clock was Miss Ethel Faye Locker, soloist and Miss Isabelle Savidge, pianist. Four concerts remain on the broadcast program.

The Study group of the Lecture-Recital club will meet Monday evening, Oct. 28, with Mrs. O. D. Anderson of South Seffner avenue.

MAN FOUND NEAR DEATH, WOMAN'S THROAT CUT

By The Associated Press

SIOUX FALLS, S. D. Oct. 21—Hospital attendants today watched over a wounded man found outside the rooming house where a woman, about 26, died of throat slashes. The man's throat bore a five-inch gash.

A note reading, "This is the way I wanted to die," and signed "Trixie Wells" was found in the woman's room, Deputy Sheriff Jay Vandiver reported. It asked that word be sent to Mrs. Eva Johnson in care of Sprague Zimmerman, New Lexington, O., on behalf of the man, Vandiver said.

Cards in the man's pockets, the deputy said, bore the name of Grover Franklin, 24, Waco, Tex., and Frank Johnson, Route No. 1, Shawnee, O.

The pair engaged the room several days ago, Vandiver said he learned from other occupants of the house.

TO GIVE DIPHTHERIA SHOTS IN SCHOOLS

Health Commissioner Plans for Thursday Program.

Children in the Marion city schools will be immunized against diphtheria Thursday, Dr. M. M. Weinbaum, city health commissioner, reported today.

Following a plan adopted last year, preliminary "Schick" tests to determine a child's immunity against the disease will not be given but diphtheria anti-toxin will be used exclusively, Dr. Weinbaum reported. The immunization is not compulsory and parents must give written permission before their children are immunized, he said.

The immunization will be in charge of Dr. W. P. Johnson of Somerton who was in charge last year and he will be assisted by Dr. Weinbaum and Miss Kathleen Thomas, city nurse. Dr. Johnson formerly was associated with the state health department as an immunization expert.

MARION COUNTY MAN IS INJURED BY FALL AT CAFE

Ira Disterdick, 70, of the Green Camp road suffered a severe scalp laceration when he fell down a stairway at the Royal Cafe night club on North Main street about 2 a. m. yesterday, police reported.

Attendants at City hospital said Mr. Disterdick did not regain consciousness until last night but that X-Rays showed he did not suffer a fractured skull. They described his condition as "fairly good" today.

Tested Recipes and Methods of Household Efficiency from Home Economics Experts.

Mt. Vernon Starts Better Diet Drive

A better-diet drive, the first program of its kind in New York State was launched Oct. 1 in Mount Vernon, under the direction of Dr. Theodore A. Jost, health commissioner of the community.

The educational program, termed "Good Nutrition Month," is designed to make adults and children, rich and poor, thoroughly vitamin-conscious. Schools, civic authorities and the health department are uniting in the program, which will stress the importance of marketing and choice of foods, as well as cooking methods.

Emphasizing the relation of the drive to present events, Dr. Jost said:

"This project is both necessary and timely since it fits into a program of national defense. People should know how to buy and cook the foods that will do them the most good.

"Our American diet is very faulty. One trouble is that people eat the parts of food that do them the least good and give the rest to the chickens and pigs. Later the people run to drug stores and buy back the very vitamins they have thrown away.

"The problem is not so much one of economic status as of education in nutritional habits."

LUNCHEON FAVORITE

Fried Scallops

The very word, "Scallops" makes all lovers of tasty food prick up their ears, declares the Fishery Council of New York City.

There are two classes of this shellfish, deep sea scallops and bay scallops. The bay variety is smaller and usually higher in cost than the sea scallops, because of the greater supply of the sea variety. This delicacy requires: 1 quart scallops, 2 eggs, 4 tablespoons cold water, shortening, tartare sauce, salt and pepper, cracker or fine bread crumbs.

If the scallops are large, cut to cubes of about ¾ inch size. Cover scallops for 3 minutes in salted water, using 1 tablespoon salt to 1 cup cold water. Drain scallops and dust with pepper, if desired.

Beat eggs and bend with the 4 tablespoons cold water. Dip scallops into beaten egg-water mixture and roll in crumbs. Scallops may be pan-fried, but are best cooked in deep shortening, heated to about 380 degrees F. In deep-frying, a single layer of scallops is placed in frying basket and is immersed in the deep shortening until the fish are cooked a deep brown. Serve with tartare sauce.

Note: Scallops are a good buy, since they are all food with no waste.

Simplifying The Role of Hostesss

Here's a "punkin face" salad mold for your Halloween buffet supper. Pipe-stem cleaner men holding tiny pumpkins serve as candle holders. Witch also is made of cleaners.

JELLIED 'PUNKIN FACE'

1 envelope unflavored gelatine, ¼ cup cold water, 1 cup hot pineapple juice, ¼ cup sugar, ¼ teaspoon salt, ½ cup orange juice, ¼ cup mild vinegar, 1 cup shredded raw carrots, 1 cup oranges, cut in small pieces, 1½ cups canned pineapple tidbits.

Soften gelatine in cold water and dissolve in hot canned pineapple juice. Add sugar, salt, orange juice and vinegar. Cool, and when mixture begins to thicken, fold in remaining ingredients. Turn into one large mold or individual molds that have been rinsed out in cold water or rubbed with mineral oil first, and chill. When firm, unmold and garnish with lettuce. Make a "punkin face" on top of mold with strips of pimento, slices of stuffed olive and mayonnaise put through a pastry tube. Serve with desired dressing.

Don't put off entertaining the bunch because you have little time to prepare a meal or because your pocketbook is limp.

You can have an informal buffet supper, arrange the food on the table and let your guests help themselves.

Stick to homespun foods. They are really best for this kind of a party. Have them simple but tasty, and in abundance. You had better allow for seconds in most cases and even some thirds.

One hot main dish, crisp salad, hot bread, plenty of coffee and simple dessert provide an ample menu and let you off easy.

Spaghetti Cornwallis is perfect for the hot spot. It is savory, satisfying and economical. It can be made up a day ahead and stored in the refrigerator. Cook 2/3 pound of spaghetti in boiling water, adding a teaspoon of salt for 2 quarts of water. Drain, rinse in quantities of cold water. Brown slightly, in 6 tablespoons bacon fat, 1/3 cup chopped onions and ½ cup each of chopped celery and green peppers. Mix in 6 tablespoons flour, ½ teaspoon salt and 1/3 teaspoon each of paprika and granulated sugar. Add 3 cups canned tomato soup and a cup of meat or chicken stock or canned bouillon. Simmer 20 minutes, stirring often.

Blend the spaghetti and tomato sauce mixture and pour over 1½ pounds chopped raw beef formed into inch balls. (In place of beef you can use a pound of cooked shrimp or crab or 2 cup of small oysters.) Mix in 1½ cups grated cheese and pour into buttered shallow baking dishes and bake 30 minutes in a moderate oven.

Another plan is to center your menu about brown topped Escalloped Oysters. Accompany with a big bowl of green salad, hot biscuits or rolls and honey. Top off with baked apples swathed in vanilla ice cream. This menu is simple, filling and not hard to prepare.

Make this Chicken Poe Pie and the crowd will shout approval. Simmer slowly, in water to cover, a five-pound stewer. Add 6 celery leaves, three sprigs of parsley and 1½ teaspoons of salt after the chicken has cooked an hour. The chicken is done when it literally falls off the bones. Separate the fowl from the stock, cool each and store in the refrigerator.

Cut the chicken into fairly good-sized pieces and add it to a creamy sauce made by using the chicken fat in place of butter or any other shortening and the stock for the liquid. This makes a grand, well-flavored gravy. If there is any chicken fat leftover, use it in making biscuits.

Pour the chicken mixture into shallow, buttered baking dishes and cover with biscuits and bake 30 minutes in a moderate oven.

CHILLY DAY DISHES

All-Bran Molasses Cookies

One-half cup shortening, ¾ cup sugar, 1 egg, ½ cup molasses, 1½ cups all-bran, 1 cup sour milk or buttermilk, 2½ cups flour, 1½ teaspoons soda, ½ teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon ginger, 1½ teaspoons cinnamon.

Blend shortening and sugar thoroughly; add egg and beat until light and fluffy. Stir in molasses, all-bran and milk, and let stand while sifting dry ingredients. Sift flour, soda, salt and spices together; add to first mixture. Drop by teaspoonfuls on greased baking sheet about 2 inches apart. Bake about 15 minutes in moderate hot oven (400 degrees F.). Yield: 2½ dozen cookies (3 inches in diameter).

Green Pea Timbales

One cup pea pulp, ½ cup milk, 1 teaspoon minced onion, 1 tablespoon melted butter, 2 eggs, well beaten.

Mix all ingredients, turn into greased timbale molds or custard cups, set in pan of hot water and bake about 30 minutes, or until firm in a moderately slow oven 325 degrees F. Approximate yield: 6 portions.

Some Party Or Any-Day Treats

Hot Potato Salad

Six medium potatoes, 4 slices diced bacon, ¼ cup minced onion, 1 egg, 4 tablespoons vinegar, 1¾ teaspoons salt, Lettuce, 2 hard-cooked eggs.

Cook potatoes with the skins on in a small quantity of water until tender. Peel and slice while hot. Fry the bacon and onion together over low heat, turning until brown and crisp.

Drain the fat off into a bowl. Add bacon and onion to the potatoes. Beat the egg and add slowly to the fat. Add vinegar, salt and the potato mixture. Blend all together and heat in top of double boiler.

This is served hot. Rub the yolk of one hard-cooked egg through a sieve and sprinkle over the top. Slice the other egg and place slices around the edge. Ripe olives, heated in their own juice, also may be used as garnish. Serves eight.

Stuffed Celery

Twelve celery stalks, 4 inches long, 8 tablespoons (½ cup) cream cheese, 16 tablespoons (1 cup) Camembert cheese, paprika.

Blend camembert and cream cheese together until smooth. Spread cheese on celery, using a fork. Sprinkle with paprika. For variety, a few minced stuffed olives may be used.

STEEL PRODUCTION SPEED-UP WAY CITED

Level Best Since 1929; Rationing Is Started.

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, Oct. 21—Steel operations advanced a half-point to 95 per cent of capacity last week, the peak since June, 1929, and the greatest tonnage in history is now being produced, the magazine Steel said today.

Tightening of the supply is becoming increasingly apparent and companies are rationing raw steel among finishing departments on a scale not attained since World war days.

The magazine forecast the next step would be the shipping of raw materials far afield to mills where some finishing capacity still is open, particularly among plants of the same organization.

The delivery span between the placing of an order and receipt of materials ranges from three weeks in the case of certain sheets and plates, to 12 weeks for alloy steel.

Steelmakers expect that by the second half of 1941 they will be unable to accept much commercial business, concentrating on defense. Increasing prominence of preferential rating slips issued by Washington defense bodies to certain consumers may prove the entering wedge toward priorities.

There is fear of a pig iron shortage, especially among merchant producers. The composite scrap price is unchanged at $20.54 per ton.

In steel prices considerations generally have been forced into the background, with timely deliveries the chief consideration.

List of "Perfect Record" Teams Due for Big Cut in This Week's Card

ornell - Ohio State Battle Among Crucial Games on Schedule.

By HUGH S. FULLERTON JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Oct. 21—The 1940 ... football season is about ... for the first time it ... approach with some ... the task of naming ... leaders still in line ... honors.

... undefeated and untied teams still is impossible ... form reversals in ... program of major ... should take in all the ... for the mythical national championship.

In this category are Boston college, Georgetown, Cornell, Pennsylvania and Fordham in the east, Tennessee, Mississippi, Clemson; Northwestern, Minnesota and Minnesota, the ... of the Big Ten, and ... and Detroit in the ... Texas Aggies and ... Texas in the southwest and Stanford on the Pacific coast.

Week's Lineup

Since this week's games may have important bearings on the outcome of the national race as well as conference contests, here's how the situation shapes up:

Cornell and Pennsylvania, both looking better than ever in conquests of Syracuse 33-6 and Princeton 46-26, respectively, meet two of the Big Ten's biggest teams. Cornell plays Ohio State, the team that gave the Big Red its first big push toward national recognition a year ago. The Bucks, ... most recently 13-7 by Minnesota, will certainly be out for doubly sweet revenge. Penn tackles Michigan, which blanked Illinois 28-0 for its fourth straight win.

Boston college, after a 60-0 walkover against Idaho, faces St. Anselm. Georgetown, 46-4 winner over Virginia Tech Friday, meets New York university, 13-7 victim of Holy Cross; and Fordham, 24-12 conqueror of Pitt, meets St. Mary's which beat Loyola of Los Angeles 18-7 yesterday.

Columbia-Syracuse

Other important games match Columbia, 19-13 winner over Georgia, and Syracuse; Princeton and Rutgers, which beat Marietta 53-0; Penn State, 34-0 winner over Lehigh, and Temple; Yale which recovered from its Penn beating to whip Dartmouth 13-7, and Navy, a 19-0 winner over Drake; Harvard, which tied Army 6-6, and Dartmouth, and Colgate, beaten 13-0 by Duke in its 50th anniversary game, against Mississippi college.

Minnesota's triumph over Ohio State put the Gophers on a par with Michigan and Northwestern, which walloped Wisconsin 27-7, in the Big Ten race. Indiana, triumphant 10-6 over Iowa, meets Northwestern. Minnesota plays Iowa and Purdue faces Wisconsin this week. Notre Dame, which smothered Carnegie Tech 61-0, plays Illinois.

In the Big Six, Nebraska continued to look like the No. 1 team as it overwhelmed Kansas 53-2 but Missouri's Tigers also shone in a 30-14 triumph over Iowa State. They meet in a decisive game Saturday.

Rose Bowl Hopes

Some of Tennessee's supporters already are looking for a Rose Bowl invitation now that the Vols have beaten Alabama, but Tennessee hasn't won the Southeastern Conference crown yet. Florida, 19-0 winner over weak Maryland, is next in line. Mississippi still tops the standings. The Rebels, 14-6 winners over Duquesne, play Arkansas in another clash.

The Southwest Conference race is between the 1939 champion Texas Aggies, who trimmed Texas Christian 21-7 Saturday, and Texas, 21-0 winner over Arkansas. The Aggies may find a tough customer in Baylor, 7-0 winner over Villanova.

Utah State's 7-0 upset triumph over Utah left Colorado's Buffaloes and Denver at the top of the Big Seven standings. Stanford's Indians trimmed Washington State 26-14, but they'll get the supreme test Saturday against Southern California. The Trojans bowled over Oregon.

Franck Gains As Minnesota Downs Ohio State 13-7

George Franck (No. 37), Minnesota back, contributed to Minnesota's 55-yard touchdown drive in the first period against Ohio State at Columbus with a good gain on this play. James Longhurst, Buckeye fullback, is at left, while Charles Anderson, Ohio end, has crashed against Bob Paffrath (No. 33), Gopher back. Minnesota won, 13-7.

HARMON HOLDS SCORING LEAD WITH 79 POINTS

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Oct. 21 — The touchdown genius of the Michigan Wolverines, Tommy Harmon, was slowed up by Illinois last week, but managed to hold the nation's individual scoring leadership against the threat of Penn's own superman, Frank Reagan.

Harmon scored one touchdown, a field goal and a point after touchdown to increase his total for four games to 79 points.

Reagan, in a part-time foray against Princeton, rolled up five touchdowns and an extra point to make his total for three games 61 points.

"LADIES NIGHT" FEATURE ON WRESTLING PROGRAM

Observance of another "ladies night" at tonight's session of wrestling at the Marion Steam Shovel arena is expected to draw an enthusiastic crowd to greet the unpopular Canadian warrior, Jules LaRance, who performs in the main bout against Oregon McDonald of Portland, Ore. LaRance last week defeated Gil Knutson.

Paul Orth of Cleveland, billed as "Tarzan of the Mat," meets Walter Roxy of Detroit, Mich., in a co-featured main go. Both of the top bouts will be 90 minutes, two falls to win. The shows open at 8:30 with a 20-minute preliminary matching Art Perkins and John Silvey.

MARION SEMI-PRO GRID TEAM BATTLES TO TIE

A newly organized semi-pro football team, the Marion Colored Monarchs, traveled to Chillicothe yesterday for the season-opening game. The locals, although outweighed, battled to a 0-0 tie. Robert Ivey, manager of the team, announced that the first home game has been scheduled for Oct. 27 when the Washington, C. H. Bombers visit here. Home games will be played at the county fairgrounds.

YAROSZ FIGHTS TONIGHT

By The Associated Press

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 21—Former middleweight champ Teddy Yarosz, nearing 30 but determined to show he can still keep out of harm's way, gets a chance for revenge tonight in a 10-round bout with capable Lloyd Marshall, Cleveland Negro who almost knocked out the veteran a year ago on the west coast.

YOUNGSTOWN PLAYER KEEPS SCORING LEAD

Aiello Holds Margin Although Benched Saturday.

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 21—Tony Aiello, Youngstown's flashy back, sat on the side lines as his mates ran up a 19 to 0 victory over Morris Harvey last week, but he stayed right on top in the Buckeye college football scoring list with 37 points. Injured a week ago, he may be out for several games.

Fenton Wolfe, Heidelberg's fine ball-toter, crept to within a point of the lead. Wolfe banged over a touchdown in the 13-0 win over Kenyon, which kept the Tiffin team at the peak of the Ohio conference.

Marty Vardaro of Youngstown slipped into third place with 31 points by kicking a point after touchdown against Morris Harvey. Mittiga of Kent State clung to the fourth spot with 30, although held scoreless by Findlay in the 13-0 Kent State triumph.

Here's how the scorers are making out:

Aiello of Youngstown, 37; Wolfe of Heidelberg, 36; Vardaro of Youngstown, 31; Mittiga of Kent State, 30; Miesle of De Sales, 28; Mutryn og Xavier, 25; Nash of Toledo, 24; Eby of Otterbein, 22; Turney of Heidelberg, 21; Brudzinski of Bowling Green, Dorobeok of De Sales and Melroit of Case, 19 each.

These players have scored 18 points: Monroe of Ohio Wesleyan, Langhurst of Ohio State, Ernsberger of Otterbein, W. Evans of Muskingum, Lefevere of Oberlin, Hart of Wilberforce, Moran of Dayton, Snyder of Ohio university, Jones Lewis of Kent State, Havel of Capital, and Lawless of Ohio Northern.

MT. GILEAD WINS 27-0 OVER MT. VERNON TEAM

Special to The Star

MT. GILEAD, Oct. 21—The Mt. Gilead High school eleven rolled up a score of 27 to 0 over the Mt. Vernon reserve team here Friday.

Breese, Miller, Ward and West accounted for touchdowns, one in each quarter. The first was scored by West on the fourth play of the game on a 45 yard gain from a reverse. It was the second victory for Mt. Gilead in six games. They will meet Danville here Friday, Oct. 25.

"APOLLO" TO SCRAP

CLEVELAND, Oct. 21—Anton Christoforidis, dubbed "the Apollo of the ring," tangles with Jimmy Reeves of Cleveland, rated No. 6 among the nation's light heavyweights, in the top 10-rounder of a boxing card tomorrow night. The program opens the winter season here.

SNATCHES OF SPORTS

BUFFALO, N. Y., Oct. 21—Monday a. m. quarterback: It'll be a long time before the football form sheet runs as true as it did Saturday... Of course, if you want to ring in the Friday nighters, Temple's win over Michigan State was something to write home about... Main question seemed to be who won the moral victory in the Army-Harvard tie... Around here the boys give it to Harvard for it had the ball on Army's one-yard stripe when time ran out.

And as some kids are prone to do,
Would tattle, Fie-o-fie-o!
The end is easily foretold,
The Indians muffed the series gold,
Ohio's out in the cold—
So we say, my-o-my-o.

Bob Pitches Ma and Pa Into Mansion

By International News Service

VAN METER, Ia., Oct. 21—Bob Feller, Cleveland America league pitcher has returned to a home which already has become the wonder of the Raccoon valley.

Bob, 21-year-old Van Meter farm boy whose pitching arm has carried him to the top of his profession, planned the new home in minute detail by him and paid for it out of his baseball earnings. It has been built since he left home last winter for spring training.

Down on the Farm

Built by the ball player as a home for his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Will Feller and his sister, Marguerite Feller, the $25,000 Norman style brick mansion is located on the 360-acre Feller farm three miles northeast of Van Meter and embodies all the latest developments of the builders' art. The family already has moved into it to make things ready for Bob's homecoming.

The two-story frame farmhouse in which the Cleveland ace and his father were born has been sold and is being removed.

While the new mansion was being completed, workmen found it necessary to keep doors and windows locked. Hundreds of people flocked to the Feller farm to attempt to get a peep at the interior of the structure.

Nothing Overlooked

The ten-room home contains, among other modern developments, heavy musical chimes, a two-colored modernistic tile bathroom, tile-floored, copper screened porch, all-metal, all-electric kitchen on the first floor and two-car garage with electric-operated overhead doors and driveway control post.

Bob's own quarters take up the east wing of the second floor and include a large bedroom, hallway, green-tiled bath room and a cedar-lined storage room. Rooms for his parents and his 12-year old "kid sister" are spacious, airy and beautifully finished. Radio outlets are provided in every room in the house, including the bathrooms.

The second upstairs bathroom has orchid fixtures, glass walls, glass-inclosed shower room and modernistic lighting. All bathroom floors are a rubber tile, in conforming colors.

Air-Conditioned

The third floor room space is taken up with air conditioning equipment including electric ventilation fans and louvres controlled by switches. A full basement of four large rooms with green-glazed tile walls houses fruit storage shelving, the oil burner for the "split system" hot-air, hot-water heating system, with two air conditioning units, a laundry with built-in tubs and and extra storage room.

An automatic pumping system draws water from a 135-foot well to auxiliary storage tanks.

SCHOENLAUB'S STARS WIN 'GRUDGE' MATCH

Defeat Younger Team by 35 Pins; Buckeyes Lose.

Schoenlaub's Stars, composed of five veteran keglers, made good the boast to "show those young upstarts a thing or two" by defeating the Ohio Amusement Co. quintet by a 35-pin margin in a Saturday night "grudge" bowling match at the Marion Recreation Center. Carl Brickley's 633 for the Stars was tops.

Marion's Buckeye Beer traveling team dropped an encounter to the Riverview Recreation on the victors' home lanes at Columbus yesterday, losing by 78 pins. Scores follow:

HARDIN CO. CHAMP HUSKS 30 BUSHELS

Chester Collins Wins Contest Held Near Dola.

Special to The Star

KENTON, Oct. 21—Chester Collins of west of Kenton Saturday won the Hardin county standing corn contest by jerking 2,173 pounds of corn in 80 minutes. Less deductions, Collins husked 2,008.6 pounds (30.8 bushels) or more than his closest competitor did without deductions.

Collins will go into the state standing corn contest in Marion county Wednesday and Thursday. The contest was held on the George Matson farm near Dola under auspices of the Dola high school chapter of Future Farmers of America.

Second place went to Laurence Matson with a net of 1,841 pounds; third was won by Jud Shuster with 1,713.6 pounds; Frank Wilson was fourth and Ernest Kahler was fifth. The latter four are residents of near Dola.

STEPHENSON IN NEARLY FULL GAME SATURDAY

Plays All But 2 Minutes of Clash With Minnesota.

Duplicating his performance of a year ago against the same team, Jack Stephenson, Marion's member of the Ohio State university football squad, played 58 minutes of Saturday's Ohio State-Minnesota game. Jack first won outstanding recognition a year ago against the Golden Gophers and celebrated the occasion by playing all except two minutes of this year's game. On both occasions he was the subject of considerable comment from sports announcers, who on each occasion gave him a big share of the credit for holding up the right side of Ohio State's forward wall.

A shelf for beverage glasses, ash trays, score cards and pencils has been invented by a resident of Daytona Beach, Fla., to be mounted on wire supports over a card table out of the way of players.

BREAKS WALK RECORD

SPRINGFIELD, O., Oct. 21—Clipping 19 minutes off the record, John J. Abbate, 38, Cincinnati tailor, won the A.A.U. 40,000-meter walking title yesterday in three hours, 39 minutes and seven seconds. The old mark was set by John Rahkonen of New York at Boston last year. William Mihalo of Hamtramack, Mich., was second and Rahkonen third.
